Red Prisoners on Korean Island Seize U.S. Commandant

MASS FINISHED AS CHURCH BLAZES. While firemen try to control a $100,000 fire at St. Vincent's Church in Madison, N. J., an iron-nerved priest, the Rev. Fr. Stephen Patch, and two altar boys complete a mass in the evacuated Roman Catholic Church. Under church law, a priest must complete a mass once he starts it. An electric short circuit caused the fire.

Gen. Dodd Held Hostage By POW's

Second Officer Also Captured But Later Escapes

PUSAN, KOREA (AP)—The Army announced today that Red prisoners on Koje Island had seized the Allied camp commandant, Brig. Gen. Francis T Dodd, and a fellow-officer on Wednesday and still are holding Dodd as a hostage

The other officer managed to escape, but General Dodd was dragged inside the Red prisoners' stockade. The other officer's name was not available.

A report from the island prison off the South Korean coast said a note had been passed from the stockade, but its contents were not disclosed. This report said that Dodd had not been harmed. It was several hours old, however

Scene Of 2 Uprisings

Koje Island has been the scene of two violent prison disorders this year.

On Feb 12, 179 persons were killed in an uprising by Red prisoners in notorious "Compound 62."

On March 13, 12 prisoners were killed when anti-Communist and Communist prisoners engaged in a rock-fight.

Dodd, who was deputy chief of staff of the U. S. Eighth Army, took command at Koje after the February riot.

The fact that the general had been captured by prisoners was known in this provisional South Korean capital several hours before it was announced.

Correspondents were not allowed to go to Koje to investigate, and a tight censorship was clamped on the island.

Soldiers (not otherwise identified in this dispatch) said Dodd and his companion were walking near the stockade when prisoners suddenly seized them.

On April 25, the Army announced that it was moving all anti-Communist or non-Communist prisoners to six new camps on the mainland, leaving only about 70,000 die-hard Reds on Koje. Whether the move had been completed was not disclosed.

U.S. Won't Compromise On Korea, Says Truman

Regulation "W" Dropped

Credit Controls Eased By Federal Government

WASHINGTON (AP)—For the first time in 20 months, the government has given you free rein to buy that car, television set, or furniture on whatever terms you can get.

The Federal Reserve Board Wednesday suspended controls over down payments and time-to-pay—on grounds that an easing of inflationary pressures made the controls no longer necessary.

There was varied reaction today as business men and officials tried to size up the case, now that dealers and finance companies may impose their own terms.

Authorities on the Reserve Board said actually they expect the effects to be slight.

Some trade circles, happy over the suspension of controls, predicted a boost in sales, which have been lagging.

A few dealers were expected to proclaim the $10 down and $1-a-week type of sale, but in most cases spokesmen for business said the change probably will be moderate.

However, The Bank of America—the world's largest bank—quickly announced much more lenient terms. A few hours after the controls were lifted, the bank announced it will require no down payment for such household appliances as refrigerators, ranges and washers, and allow 24 months to pay.

Its new automobile financing terms are on a sliding scale, depending on the year in which the car was produced. On 1952 and 1951 new models, down payment is 30 per cent, balance in 30 months; on 1950-49-48 used models, 30 per cent down and 24 months for the balance; 1947-46, 30 per cent down, 18 months to pay; and on prewar models, 40 per cent down, balance in 24 months.

On television and radio purchases, the bank will require 10 per cent down and 24 months to pay.

Regulation "W" required a one-third down payment on automobiles and 15 per cent down on furniture and appliances, with 18 months to pay.

The government still will regulate terms for real estate purchases—under regulation "X"—and officials said there is little likelihood of a suspension in this field.

An official of the radio and television manufacturers association said down payments probably will be reduced, especially on more expensive sets, but time to pay probably will remain about the same.

The National Automobile Dealers Association said finance companies are expected to continue to require about one-third down on most cars, but the payment period may be extended from 18 months to an average of 24 months.

Many business men and government officials agreed that the ultimate effects will depend on consumer reaction and business competition.

They said dealers are expected to ease up on credit terms as needed to boost sales; but they still will want to keep sound credit accounts.

Concert Ticket Sale Close Set For Saturday

Deadline for closing the campaign is 5 p.m. Saturday, Mrs. A. G. Birch, campaign chairman, states. Tickets may be purchased from any of the 100 workers, or interested persons may contact campaign headquarters at the H. Schaffner Furniture Co. store, telephone 2-8008. Headquarters will be open until 5:30 tonight and until 9 p.m. Friday.

Planes Blast Red Base In Big Air Raid

Buildings, Trucks, Guns Destroyed In Sweeping Attack

SEOUL (AP)—Day-long waves of American planes, in the biggest air raid of the Korean war, turned a major Communist supply base "into billowing flames and smoke" today, the U. S. Fifth Air Force reported.

The Air Force said the dawn to dusk rain of high explosives, rockets, jellied gasoline fire bombs and machinegun bullets destroyed 165 supply buildings and damaged 81.

American and Australian jet planes screening the raiders shot down two MIG-15 jets and damaged another, the Air Force added.

Suan Is Target

Target of the mass raid was Suan, 15 miles southeast of Pyongyang, North Korean capital. Suan is a feeder point to Chinese troops on the western front. Air Force photos had shown the area literally loaded with trucks and military supplies heavily guarded by antiaircraft guns.

Jets and propeller driven planes drawn from four wings made well over 300 individual attacks, the Air Force said.

They "tore the Communist supplies to shreds," a communique said. "Thousands of gallons of fiery napalm (jellied gasoline) were spread over the target, turning piles of supplies into billowing flames and smoke."

F-80 shooting stars opened the attack at dawn.

"We hit the enemy flak (anti-aircraft) positions and hit them hard," said Lt. William N. Wright of Sebring, Fla. "We just walked right down their lines of tracers with our machine gun bullets to score hits first. A lot of their guns suddenly quit."

No report was made of damage to American planes if any. That is mentioned only in weekly summaries.

Find Missing Light Plane

WARSAW, Ky. (AP)—A burned airplane was found on a farm near here last night and the body of the pilot was believed to be that of Virgil May, 55, of Delray Beach, Fla., missing since April 24 on a flight from Lima, O., to Florida.

May also was known as Art Williams and papers found strewn around the wreckage bore the name of Art Williams

Twelve-year-old Carl Noel found the wreckage on his parents' farm, 10 miles east of here. The lad was rounding up cattle in a little used field when he discovered the burned plane.

May had borrowed the plane from a Delray Beach physician to fly his parents to their home in Lima. He disappeared on the return trip and a search for him was started after his wife reported he had failed to show up.

Air Force rescue crews from Selfridge Field, Mich., and civil air patrol planes searched over an area extending into Virginia. Ground force crews also hunted yesterday near London, Ky.

The search had been given up only a few hours before the burned plane was found.

U.S. Navy Band To Play Here Tonight

Military, modern, and classical compositions will be included in the program which the 55-piece United States Navy Band will present tonight at 8:15 in the Palace Theater. Tickets may be purchased at the boxoffice.

Two afternoon concerts were also presented by the band, at 1.30 and 3 o'clock. These performances were arranged primarily to accommodate pupils of city and county schools, and the programs were especially adapted for high school students

The band is on its annual tour, approved by the President, and its appearance in Marion is sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce. It came to Marion from Rocky River, O., and will appear Friday in Mt. Vernon. At the end of the five-week tour on May 14, the band will have made one-day appearances in 36 cities.

Director of the band is Lt. Comdr. Charles Brendler, U.S.N.

Bookie Says He Paid To Aid O'Dwyer

Gross Says Mayor's Crony Shook Him Down for $15,000

(Picture on Page 12)

NEW YORK (AP)—Ex-bookie Harry Gross—his lips unzippered after months in jail—testified Wednesday that James J. Moran shook him down for a $15,000 political contribution during former Mayor William O'Dwyer's 1949 campaign.

Moran, long-time political crony of O'Dwyer, is in Sing Sing prison on a 12½-28 year sentence for masterminding a $500,000-a-year firemen's shakedown racket when he was first deputy fire commissioner.

Gross, who returns to the witness stand today, also testified he had "an arrangement" with Inspector William P. O'Brien whom O'Dwyer later named police commissioner.

The "arrangement," Gross said, was for protection at the rate of "$50 or $100 for him (O'Brien), plus the regular amount for the spot"

Gross reputedly paid one million dollars a year graft to police for protection until his 20-million-dollar-a-year bookie racket was smashed in 1950.

O'Brien, asked for comment on Gross' testimony, declared: "He's a liar. I don't know him. I never saw him. I never met him."

O'Brien, now in private business, quit as police commissioner during the graft scandal which broke after Gross' arrest. At the time of the resignation, O'Dwyer said "I believe Bill O'Brien is as honest a man as I have ever known."

O'Dwyer, now U.S ambassador to Mexico, said in Mexico City Wednesday night that he had "no comment" on Gross' testimony.

Gross testified at the departmental retrial of five policemen charged with protecting his gambling operations and with perjury at their first trial last November.

The original departmental trial and also the mass criminal trial of 18 alleged police grafters were wrecked when Gross refused to talk

He drew a five-year sentence for contempt of court, and later was sentenced to 12 years on bookmaking and conspiracy charges.

The 36-year-old ex-bookie from Brooklyn has had a taste of penitentiary life since September, and apparently hopes to win reduction of his sentence by testifying.

TUITION TO GO UP

GRANVILLE (AP)—President A. Blair Knapp of Denison University today announced the university's tuition and fees will be increased from $525 to $600 per year at the start of the next academic year in September.

Truman Tells Plans After Retirement

Will Have Good Time, Travel, He Says On 68th Birthday

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Truman said today that after he leaves the White House next January, he plans to spend ten years having a good time and doing just as he damn pleases.

He discussed his future with reporters at the weekly White House news conference, which coincided with his 68th birthday and the seventh anniversary of Germany's World War II collapse.

Truman said he would like to travel to some parts of the world he hasn't seen, but he will go nowhere and do nothing that might embarrass the next President. That was in reply to a question as to whether he would travel abroad when he leaves office and perhaps visit Stalin.

Truman was in good humor in talking of his personal plans, but solemn on world conditions. He said conditions are very grave. Then he added a prediction there will be no World War III if labor-management disputes do not cut American production and if Congress restores the reductions that have been made in his defense and foreign aid budgets.

"Down Stalin's Alley"

The recent production losses and the congressional move to trim military and foreign aid spending, the President declared, are right down Stalin's alley.

Truman said also:

1—He has no present intention of announcing his choice among the various candidates for the Democratic presidential nomination. But he reserves the right to do so when and if he chooses—and he said the 1948 election shows he's a good judge on political matters.

2—He hopes for an early settlement of the oil strike and is not

Former Movie Magnate Dies In New York

NEW YORK (AP) — William Fox, 73, a pioneer motion picture producer and one-time operator of more than 250 theaters valued at more than 100 million dollars, died in Doctors Hospital today

Fox ran $1,600 into a personal fortune of 35 million dollars but his moving picture empire crumbled under the depression, creditors and law suits.

He served a five-month term in prison at the age of 63 on charges of conspiring to obstruct justice and defraud the government. He was accused of bribing a Pennsylvania circuit court judge to obtain favorable bankruptcy verdicts.

Theda Bara, the "Vampire," and Annette Kellerman, who made the one-piece bathing suit famous, were among stars of his productions.

GENERAL RIDGWAY GREETS SUCCESSOR. Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway (center) shakes hands with Gen. Mark Clark, his successor as supreme commander in the Far East, on the latter's arrival at Haneda Airport, Tokyo. Ridgway in turn has been named to succeed Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower as NATO commander in Europe.

Reds Charge U.N. Blocking Korea Truce

Attack Allies' Stand on Exchange Of Prisoners

MUNSAN, KOREA (AP)—The Communists today accused the United Nations command of delaying a truce in Korea by refusing to negotiate further on prisoner exchange.

The prisoner issue is the only one in the path of an armistice in the nearly two-year-old war.

North Korean Gen. Nam Il's verbal blast failed to shake the Allied delegates from their no retreat stand against forced return of prisoners to Red rule.

The Allies have told the Reds that 62,000 captured Red soldiers do not want to be repatriated.

"Your so-called screening of our captured personnel is absurd," Nam declared in the 18-minute session at Panmunjom.

Propaganda Tirade

Nam spoke for 17 minutes. Vice Adm. C. Turner Joy, chief U.N. command delegate, called Nam's speech a "propaganda tirade that can serve no useful purpose."

At Nam's request, truce delegates will meet again tomorrow.

Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway and Gen. Mark W. Clark, who will replace Ridgway as supreme United Nations commander arrived in Korea. They were met by Gen. James A. Van Fleet, who succeeded Ridgway a year ago as commander of U. N. ground forces in Korea.

The visit followed by only one day Ridgway's warning that the Allies will make no further concessions to the Reds to end the war.

In Washington President Truman said the United States will not buy an armistice "by turning over human beings for slaughter or slavery."

Ridgway will leave Monday to relieve General Eisenhower as commander of NATO in Europe.

For the second straight day, Joy proposed an indefinite suspensions of negotiations until the Communists are ready to talk business. But the Reds quickly called for a Friday meeting.

VANDENBERG IN HOSPITAL

WASHINGTON (UP) — Gen. Hoyt S. Vandenberg, Air Force chief of staff, is "resting comfortably" today after undergoing a major abdominal operation.

SHUT DOWN MINE

GALLIPOLIS (AP) — Sheriff George Ehman reported today 180 union "organizers" were preventing 80 employes of the Ohio River Collieries at nearby Cheshire from going to work. Ehman said the mine was shut down. About 200 men invaded the mine premises Monday and he said drove the employes off with shovels.

U.N. 3-Point Proposal Must Stand

Reds Given Choice Of Accepting Or Continuing War

WASHINGTON (AP)—An uncompromising announcement by President Truman that "this is our position" left the Asiatic Communists today with the choice of accepting what is apparently the final Allied armistice offer or continuing a war that has cost them much and gained them little.

While the Communists mulled over the declaration that the United Nations' three-point proposal must be accepted in entirety, military and diplomatic officials here weighed the alternatives to be used if the offer is spurned.

If the Chinese and Korean Reds turn down the one-package proposal, including the point that there be no forced return of prisoners, who don't want to go back, the prospects for continued war seemed uppermost. The shape this war could take—more prolonged stalemate on the existing battleline, a blockade of Red China's ports, attacks on the China coast—figured in several alternatives considered by the United States and its Allies.

The chance of a diplomatic effort outside Korea to settle the dispute remained at least a possibility. Deputy Defense Secretary William C. Foster was asked by reporters Wednesday if direct negotiations with Russia, master Communist nation, had been considered. Foster replied that "every alternative has been considered," including that one.

Three Points

The single package proposal submitted by Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway's negotiators at Panmunjom and supported by the U.N. allies contains these three points:

1. "That there shall be no forced repatriation of prisoners of war—as the Communists have insisted" (The President's summary of the point). A poll has shown that 100,000 of the 173,000 prisoners would oppose return to Communist hands. This was a bitter blow to Communist prestige.

2. The United Nations will not insist on prohibiting reconstruction or repair of airfields in Communist areas.

3. The commission to supervise an armistice shall include two Communist satellite nations, Poland and Czechoslovakia, and two chosen by the United Nations, Sweden and Switzerland.

It was the first point that was at issue and it was that one over which the President was precise and adamant. He said "we will not buy an armistice by turning over human beings for slaughter or slavery."

Prisoners Separated

Truman declared the U.N. had taken extreme care in separating the 100,000 prisoners who said they would oppose return from the 70,000 who wanted to go back, adding that the U.N. would agree to an impartial screening, after an armistice, of the prisoners. (The mechanics of such a screening are

NEW DRAFT TEST

WASHINGTON (AP)—College students who missed the last two Selective Service qualification tests will have one more chance to take a quiz that might defer them from military service. Maj. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, draft director, said today the test will be held May 22 and that it's open to any college student who did not take the Dec. 13 or April 24 quizzes.

VET BILLS APPROVED

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two compromise bills boosting veterans' benefit payments an estimated 202 million dollars annually were passed by the House today and sent to the Senate.

Four Hold Up Taxi Driver, Flee With $4

One Pulls Gun On Earl Luke, Robs Him of Fare Money

City police today were searching for four men who Wednesday night held up a local taxicab driver and escaped with $4.

Held up at gunpoint was Earl Luke of 409 Nye St., a driver for the Yellow Cab Taxi Co.

Luke said the four men hailed his cab on Leader St. at 9:37 p.m. and instructed him to drive them to a Quarry St. address. When the cab reached a darkened spot on Quarry St. at the rear of the Stuart Grocery Co. one of the three riding in the rear seat stuck a gun in Luke's ribs and ordered him to stop the cab.

The driver said the youthful gunman appeared to be nervous. After stopping the cab, Luke was ordered to hand over the fare money, which amounted to $4. He said the robbers apparently were too nervous to think of his wallet. He had been working only a short while and had not collected enough fares to pile up any large amount of cash in the fare money, he said.

After the holdup the four fled on foot north on an alley toward George St.

The Taft Brothers

WHAT the professional politicians will have to say about the unique situation of Robert A. Taft running for the presidency, if he is nominated next July, while Charles A. Taft runs for governor of Ohio on the same ticket is problematic.

But the thumping vote of approval given to Sen. Taft's candidacy in Tuesday's primary while Charles Taft was sweeping the Republican primary for governor does not indicate any misgivings about a brother combination in the minds of Republican voters.

On the contrary, it seems reasonable to assume that there was a mutual advantage in the primary and that there would be the same advantage if Sen. Taft became the Republican candidate for President. The friends of each man would be even more likely to assert their support for the other in a general election than in a primary.

Both represent what could be called a philosophy of dynamic conservatism in the politics of their time. While his position as a policy-maker and leader of the opposition in Congress has identified Sen. Taft closely with political conservatism, he has shown the same sympathy for constructive change that caused his brother to alienate the affections of the Hamilton County Republican organization, it opposed his candidacy for nomination as governor because he had opposed its stand-pat attitude toward civic reform in Ohio's second-largest city.

Mother's Interlude

THOUGH Mother's Day does not arrive until Sunday, this might properly be called Mother's Week. She will be given more consideration, both shallow and deep, than is her lot at any other time of the year.

In one way or another, millions of us will be thinking of some suitable way to show our appreciation of our mothers on their big day. While this necessarily is a personal matter, there are some collective facts about mothers which suggest that appreciation is called for.

When Mother's Day became a national observance in 1913, about a third of all mothers were living quietly on farms, pitching hay and milking cows. Today, only a sixth of them have this advantage.

The other five-sixths are urbanized. They have such nagging responsibilities as helping out with the family income (more than a third of all women between 20 and 45 are in the country's working force today.) Farm mothers, meanwhile, have been helped out by hay balers and milking machines.

They must know how to repair a host of gadgets, keep track of political vexations and separate their smaller but more assertive broods of offspring from TV at bedtime. They must drive automobiles, know their way around in supermarkets and, chances are, serve on from one to five committees.

If it keeps on this way for another 30 years, mothers will have started to become extinct, like the American Bison which everybody took for granted until it was too late to redeem them.

Economic Equity

HOUSE hearings on the Wage Stabilization Board, if conducted searchingly, can reveal where a managed economy is going.

It arrived at its destination tentatively in the WSB recommendations for satisfying a powerful union in the steel dispute. That is not the only tentative destination it has reached.

In the railroad dispute, where the problem of railroad rates also is the subject of government decision, the same WSB withheld a settlement which would have been favorable to another powerful union.

But in each case, a government board ceased to be a referee in a free bargaining contest and became an economic policy-maker. It undertook to rule on what its members thought was proper policy from their point of view, regardless of the points of view of the parties concerned in the disputes.

Moreover, because of WSB's composition—six union spokesmen and six management spokesmen, balanced by six "public" members—the decision reflected chiefly the viewpoints of the six "public" members.

Most of these men are relatively young. They share a background of intensive training in economic theory; they have no common background of economic experience. Like the theorists of the British Labor Party who attempted to manage a complicated economy by edict, they are unable to command the confidence of either management or unionists.

The quickest way to spot the absurdity of what they have tried to do is to imagine what would happen if the balance of power in the WSB were held by six theorists as partial to management as the six theorists of the existing board are to labor unions.

No one would welcome that kind of a destination for a managed economy, either. If the House investigators get at the truth, no one will welcome a managed economy. It cannot be sold in this country if the contents are known.

Signs of Another "Scandal"

By David Lawrence

Public Seen Getting Raw Deal on Boards

WASHINGTON

SOMETHING approaching a scandal has been slowly developing in recent years through the appointment of persons to quasi-judicial boards and commissions who are supposed to represent the "public" as impartial members but who actually are avowed partisans in behalf of "left wing" ideology.

Congress has been delegating to boards and commissions the power to write regulations and decide issues of vital importance to the public. If these boards are stacked, it's just like playing with loaded dice.

The latest episode, which has attracted attention relates to the so-called "public" members of the Wage Stabilization Board and its panels which make "recommendations" in wage disputes. Clarence Randall, head of Inland Steel Company, told a nation-wide radio audience that the "public" members of the board which sided with labor in deciding the steel case were beholden to the labor unions—in fact, at times had performed professional services for which they were paid by labor organizations. This was promptly denied with the statement that these professional arbitrators who had served in labor cases had been paid, as usual, by both sides. But what is not generally realized is that their opportunity to continue as labor arbitrators in case after case is directly related to their known willingness to decide issues on the labor union side. The employers often are confronted with such a narrow choice that they feel they cannot continue to object to the names submitted to them because the strike weapon is held over them, and often, despite their protests, the government goes ahead and appoints them anyway.

IN THE CASE of the Wage Stabilization Board, the appointments were made by a political President who doesn't have to consult employers when he makes such selections. The "public" members of the Wage Stabilization Board are men of integrity but nearly all of them are steeped in the ideology of labor unions. There is a large number of college professors who are confiscationists at heart. They do not know the first thing about the obligations of those who borrow money or who, in good faith, take from investors money for risk capital. The "left winger" doesn't worry if the large companies fail to make an adequate profit to pay the wages of investors. If by chance the companies should go to the wall, the same "left wing" group would be advocating government ownership or nationalization. Fundamentally, the virus of socialism is deeply imbedded in the "left wing" group and it is out of that category that the late President Roosevelt and now Mr. Truman have made selections whenever there are presidential boards to be appointed in economic disputes.

There is no practical way by which congress can prevent this abuse of the appointive power. Many of the boards, like the Wage Stabilization Board, are not even provided for by law. They admittedly have no statutory sanction. But when they make "recommendations," the labor unions regard them as final, the President takes over the plants and then threatens to put into effect the "recommendations" of the presidentially appointed board — the "packed" court.

IT'S A GAME which the public hasn't observed too carefully heretofore but, now that the abuse of power in the steel controversy has been revealed, it is bound to occupy the attention of congress as well as the courts. Congress is to some extent at fault for failing to spell out executive powers and for allowing many appointments to presidential boards which have the power of life or death over American enterprises to be made without authority of law and without confirmation by the Senate.

The real blame for the presence on government boards of biased members is unquestionably on the shoulders of President Truman. The best evidence of the prevalent belief that the CIO controls the White House and usually has Mr. Truman in its corner in its economic battles is to be found in a United Press dispatch last month which reads as follows:

"PITTSBURGH, March 27 — A top official of the CIO United Steelworkers said today that the union was in a 'particularly fortunate' position in its wage dispute with the steel industry 'because we have a rather friendly gentleman in the White House.'

"David J. MacDonald, USW secretary-treasurer, told the Pennsylvania CIO convention that if Sen. Robert A. Taft were President, instead of President Truman, 'our lawyers would be in federal court right today fighting against issuance of an injunction'."

Yet the Taft-Hartley law does provide for injunctions when major labor disputes are threatened. So the CIO expects Mr. Truman, in return for the political support they have heretofore given, to ignore his oath to uphold the Constitution, which orders that he "shall take care that the laws be faithfully executed."

There's the explanation for much of the internal trouble in America today.

A Tree Grows in Europe

The Vital Value of Judicial Review

By George E. Sokolsky

PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S assertion of unlimited power, no longer stoutly maintained, challenged by the decision of Judge David A. Pine, is now on appeal to the United States Supreme Court on a writ of certiorari.

In our system of checks and balances, the executive and legislative branches of government are independent of the judicial, but the majesty of the law crowns all three, who must abide by it. The issue in hand is not wages, prices, profits, steel or cigaret butts. The issue is whether the President may function without a law.

In one of the earliest and most important cases argued before the Supreme Court, Chisholm V. Georgia, Justice James Wilson in 1793, only four years after the Constitution was adopted, fully stated the authority of the American nation over all men within it. This decision knocks down any theory of unlimited powers and is the first step in establishing the right of judicial review. I quote from it the applicable paragraphs:

"Whoever considers in a combined and comprehensive view the general texture of the Constitution will be satisfied that the people of the United States intended to form themselves into a nation for national purposes. They instituted, for such purposes, a national government, complete in all its parts, with powers legislative, executive and judiciary; and in all those powers extending over the whole nation.

IT IS CONGRUOUS that, with regard to such purposes, any person, natural or artificial, should be permitted to claim successfully an entire exemption from the jurisdiction of the national government? Would not such claims, crowned with success, be repugnant to our very existence as a nation? . . ."

The court decided that it possessed the power, in this particular case, to review matters between States and between a citizen and a state.

Ten years later, in 1803, Chief Justice John Marshall wrote the outstanding decision of Marbury V. Madison, which established beyond doubt the authority of the Supreme Court to provide judicial review where needed. He wrote:

"The judicial power of the United States is extended to all cases arising under the Constitution.

"Could it be the intention of those who gave this power to say that in using it the Constitution should not be looked into? That a case arising under the Constitution should be decided without examining the instrument under which it arises?

"This is too extravagant to be maintained.

"In some cases, then, the Constitution must be looked into by the judges. And if they can open it at all, what part of it are they forbidden to read or to obey?"

MARSHALL DECIDED: "Thus, the particular phraseology of the Constitution of the United States confirms and strengthens the principle, supposed to be essential to all written constitutions, that a law repugnant to the Constitution is void, and that courts, as well as other departments, are bound by that instrument."

In the Steel Seizure Case, the President has taken a step for which he has no law. In a word, he has exceeded his authority. That is the purport of Judge Pine's decision, which says:

"These (enumerated by him) are the only sections (of the Constitution) which have any possible relevancy, and their mere enumeration shows the utter fallacy of defendant's claim.

"Neither singly nor in the aggregate do they grant the President, expressly or impliedly, as that term has hereinabove been defined, the 'residium of power' or 'inherent' power which authorizes him, as defendant claims, to take such action as he may deem to be necessary, including seizure of plaintiffs' properties, whenever in his opinion an emergency exists requiring him to do so in the public interests. Instead, in Congress is lodged, within Constitutional limitations, the power 'to provide for the common defense and general welfare'."

The Supreme Court has held that it has no general supervising power over the proceedings and actions of the various administrative departments of government. However, the court may decide on the rights of individuals (or corporations) under the Constitution. The confiscation of property and protection against executive acts unwarranted by law do properly come within the scope of the judicial power.

The unanimous decision of the Supreme Court last Saturday to accept jurisdiction in the appeals of the various parties to Judge Pine's decision, and the issuance of a stay forbidding the change of the status quo regarding wages, unless mutually agreed upon, of itself establishes the truth that in the United States, no official, including the President, possesses unlimited powers.

Summer Storm

By TRUMAN TWILL

THE FIRST summer storms are beginning to rumble and roar from horizon to horizon — once more asserting their claim to being a more basic part of the season than green grass and blossoms on the trees.

Yet this timeless quality of storms seems never to be taken for granted until it is impressed anew at the beginning of each new summer. It is never included in the bright expectations of the season when "the living is easy."

The first time the horizon throws up ominous thunderheads punctuated by lightning, it is as though something unexpected and without precedent were about to happen. Everything in nature trembles in awe—the trees, the fields and all creatures with memories, and instincts which prompt them to seek shelter.

The hush that comes before the first chilling wind is disturbed by frantic scurryings to refuge. Everything which must withstand the fury of the heavens without shelter seems to brace its feet and stiffen its back for the imminent ordeal by wind, water and possible fire.

Only after half a dozen of these ordeals have been withstood do the victims learn again, as they have had to learn in ages past, that there is compensation in the fury of the storm for those who will be able to withstand it—because that has been the experience of storms which have happened before under the same circumstances.

Some never cease to be afraid; and the wise never cease to be respectful. One bolt of lightning, one gust of wind may confirm all the darkest fears of the gloomiest imaginations. It is but scant comfort to be able to believe in the lull before the fury is unleashed that it probably will be bearable.

MAN AND HIS animal companions relive in a few awesome moments the agonies of dark experiences in the thunderous dawn of life on earth when the gales, floods and thunders pried at their tenuous hold on the planet and swept the weaklings and the luckless into oblivion.

And as they relive the anxiety, so do they relive the blessed release from anxiety when finally the storm has passed and the horizon from which it sprang in fury is freshly washed and tranquil again.

They breathe deeply of the tonic air and tread on the softness of the revived ground. The birds take up the hymn of praise from their choir lofts in the dampened trees, and the browsing animals step out into the succulent feast of tender grass.

The children wade in the rivulets and pools, the dogs come out of their hiding places and life, intact after this newest crisis, picks up the threads where they were dropped when the thunder began to rattle the composure of a world which easily forgets there was thunder before there was fear.

It is God's world, not ours only: "Wait on the Lord: be of good courage, and he shall strengthen thine heart: wait, I say, on the Lord."—Psalm 27:14.

Landslide in Texas

By Raymond Moley

FORT WORTH

THE FINAL VERDICT in Texas in the contest between the Truman and anti-Truman forces in the Democratic Party must be written at the state convention late in May. Also, there must be written at the state con-Republican convention at the same time whether the state's delegation to Chicago will vote for Taft or Eisenhower. But the precinct conventions just held show pretty clearly what those decisions will be.

To an outsider like myself, these precinct conventions are most interesting examples of popular government in action at the grass roots and the street corners of this big state. In the cities they were all held at the same hour on last Saturday evening. I attended two — one Democratic, the other Republican, although I reached the latter only in time to hear the result. In most years these meetings of the voters are attended by only a handful of people. This year the attendance was astonishingly large. Feelings ran high. Spirited speeches were made on each side. The decisive vote was taken almost as soon as the meeting got itself organized.

In the Democratic conventions the first and last issue was the so-called loyalty pledge. This pledge, proposed by a member of the pro-national Administration faction of the Democratic Party, otherwise known as "loyalists" and hereinafter known as "liberals," was to instruct delegates to the successive conventions to support the decisions of the various conventions up to and including the national convention in Chicago. The fundamental article of faith of those who are opposed to the Truman policies, hereinafter known as "conservatives," is to keep utterly free of instructions. Laws are cited on each side of the issue, but to me there seems to be small doubt about the law and logic being with the conservatives. In any event, the sovereign voters in hundreds of precincts decided for the conservatives.

AFTER THE DECISIVE vote on the pledge, the contest was practically over, and in a great many cases the defeated faction withdrew, usually to another part

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

Double Feature

THE CONTENTION that Harry Truman will bear watching in the coming presidential convention sweepstakes was borne out by a recent event, the President's performance against the Kentucky Derby. It marked the debut of both the Derby and the President on a video entertainment program. Both came at almost the same time. (We thought Harry gave Hill Gail a battle all the way. While we wouldn't call it a photo, we would certainly place the President closer to the winner than Sub Fleet or Blue Man. Harry made a great showing at the weights.)

In fact, H.S.T. surprised all form students. They had him tabbed on past performance as an excitable, temperamental fellow plenty troublesome. Some folks expected him to be difficult to handle. But he showed a most complete form reversal and was cool, calm and free of irritability at all times. Our chart writer, a little confused through seeing both the President's White House tour and the Derby by video, summed up this way: "Harry fooled everybody by not cutting up at all. Don't forget that he had come off two tough heats, a gruelling speech the night before on corruption and a tough six furlongs with the steel magnates and workers that afternoon. But he came on the track fresh and fit."

Our chart would have read: "Harry broke fast in the main lobby and was under a pull in the diplomatic reception room, Cronkite up. He was just galloping passing the library, reached the main dining room in a breeze and had everything well in hand approaching the Lincoln Room. Irascibility, Stubborn Lad, Letter Writer, Big Seize and Lay-'Em-In-Lavender, from whom much trouble was expected, were never a threat. Harry reached the East Room unexpected, met a challenge from Mozart's Ninth Sonata without effort and in the stretch was flashing the same speed shown as he passed the Dolly Madison and Mrs. J. K. Polk paintings at the first furlong pole. Winner took the double feature classic without a deep breath and had plenty in reserve. Will bear watching in Chicago Handicap this summer."

EGYPT IS BEING taught baseball by America under the Fulbright Act. . . . Does this forecast hot-dogs all along the Nile? . . . What's so new in baseball to Egypt? . . . Weren't Cleopatra's curves famous thousands of years ago? . . . And didn't Caesar beat Mark Anthony in the first real world series? . . . Millions visited the White House through that telecast last week, many of whom were Republicans. The Democrats claim they can get in no other way. . . . Willie Sutton is now in the hoosegow, where he says a man has a good chance if he gets "the breaks." . . . George M. Bragalini, new postmaster of New York, is an ex-naval man. . . . His first action should be to stop past efforts to coordinate "Not snow, nor rain, nor heat, nor gloom of night stays these couriers from the swift completion of their appointed rounds" with the sign "Do not disturb."

One Man's Opinion

By WALTER KIERNAN

We're trying to worry about steel but with Zsa Zsa Gabor's marriage on the rocks, the Yankees in the second division and gas for the power mower running low, we're pretty busy.

Zsa Zsa says it would have gone better for but "I was just too sweet" . . . And there is a ready-made explanation for any candidate who doesn't make the grade this year.

"If you want to know why I didn't get the nomination the truth of the matter is I was just too sweet."

But I think it was nice of Mr. Truman to give the Republicans that television peek into the White House last week even though he didn't show the seizure room or where he was sitting when he decided to take us into Korea.

Everyone will agree though that the White House renovation was a beautiful job and well worth the money, our grandchildren's children will be paying for it.

Marion Garden Center Notes

GLADIOLUS

If you grow Gladiolus, you want to get spikes you will be proud of. When the growth of the plants is well advanced, a light application of fertilizer is desirable. This should be a 4-10-6 commercial fertilizer or as near to this formula as can be obtained. It should be applied at the rate of 5 pounds per 100 feet of row, put on either side of the row about 5 or 6 inches away from the plants, and raked into the soil. Perhaps more important than fertilling is the necessity of keeping the growing gladiolus plants well supplied with moisture at all times.

Inside Labor

By Victor Riesel

PITTSFIELD, MASS.

INSIDE THE BIG PLANT the magical electronic gadgets roll out gun directors for the Navy's big battle-wagons. And right outside the plant gate, in a reeking shack at 77 Woodlawn Ave., to be exact, two pro-Communists have set up shop to try to foment strikes which would paralyze those sensitive instruments and keep some of those big Navy busters from automatically finding their Communist targets in Korea.

These two are mysterious operators brought in from the midwest by a dynamic pro-Soviet union, the United Electrical Workers. All day long they write leaflets, distribute them and hassle the skilled men going into this General Electric plant.

But here they have a hard time of it, for the men are members of Jim Carey's anti-Communist CIO electronic workers, the International Union of Electrical Workers and they pay no head.

It's not so across the way in Schenectady, electronic capital of the world, center of highly secret atomic research.

There, in the giant home plant of the General Electric Co., built of steel and brick and concrete on beds of Indian arrow heads, some 40,000 men make the huge turbines and all the powerful electronic devices which fly our planes, move our warships and fire our guns. Yet some 19,000 of these men are led by pro-Communists who control them so tightly the CIO just can't get a toe-hold in that prime arsenal of ours.

EACH MORNING at 6:30, pro-Soviet agents are out at the gates of GE and American Locomotive Co. plants passing out pro-Russian "peace" literature. And at night, something called the Peace Council shows the notorious Communist-produced film, exposed in these colums, called "Peace Will Win." This is distributed out of New York by the official Soviet film agency, Artkino.

For months, the Sovieteers have been showing this picture, which glorifies North Korea and features a Soviet labor agent called Kuo Mo-Jo, winner of a Stalin award. For months this film, which blasts the U.S. and attacks our troops in Korea, has been reeled off before the men who make our secret gadgets.

No one has yet been able to drive these forces from the nation's electrical centers. But it may soon happen. It can now be revealed that when this columnist was in Chicago recently, he learned that a group of national CIO leaders were meeting there, preparing war on the pro-Communists in strategic war industries.

In Chicago then were Walter Reuther, head of the CIO's automobile workers, Allan Haywood, executive vice president and now operational head of CIO, and Jim Carey. After deciding to set up a new joint headquarters in Chicago, they completed plans to send flying squads across Illinois, Wisconsin, Indiana, Minnesota and Iowa—into every city and county where the pro-Communist unions still have power—especially in war industries.

AFTER THAT they'll swing east and attempt to wipe the leftists out of such centers as Schenectady. This is the showdown. As much money and manpower as is needed will be poured into the fight by these veteran leaders who have been through the toughest unionization wars in the coal, electronic and auto fields.

Within a few weeks, some 45 special organizers will fan out. They'll pick a city, fight the pro-Communist crowd, beat them and then move on to clean up everything in sight.

This marks the first coordinated campaign to clean up the electronics field, radar factories, tank plants, jet engine factories and such huge civilian production facilities as the vast International Harvester Co.

Previously even the CIO unions feuded among themselves in these fields, thus dividing their energies.

But now the anti-Communist war is on.

It's long overdue not only here, but on the West Coast waterfront, in Alaska and Hawaii, in the copper mines, and the eastern cable and telegraphic communications centers.

No Sovieteer should be permitted to lead a union!

The Office Wolf

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK

NO HISTORY of the romance of our times is complete without a chapter on that Romeo of the water cooler—the office wolf.

He is the Peck's bad boy of the business world, but no office is the same without a wolfie or two.

What is an office wolf? In pulp love tales he is luridly pictured as a prowling scoundrel evilly plotting to lead astray a poor but innocent working girl.

In fact, however his teeth are less sharp than they are in fiction. Often , alas, his teeth are as false as his designs.

The average office wolf is as harmless as a tame skunk. He isn't really a wolf at all—he is just a mouse with great yearnings. Usually he is a married man with a wife at home who understands him only too thoroughly. That is why he paws his way around the office in the romantic hope of finding some girl who will be kind enough to misunderstand him a little. If there is anything a man can't stand, it is to be understood all the time.

One of the delusions of the office wolf is that his overtures to the hired girls are a guilty secret, known only to him. The truth is, of course, that every conversation in the privacy of the ladies" room starts off:

"Well, Mabel, what did Old Wolfie whisper to you this morning? Isn't he a perfect scream? He'll be the death of me yet—from laughing."

THE GIRLS GET a big kick out of comparing the techniques the office wolf tries in his daily rounds. If he ever realized this, he would dwindle quickly into an office mouse. That would be too bad because, by and large, he does bring a sense of mild adventure and fun into the workaday routine.

I don't pretend to be an authority on office wolves. But girls I have consulted on the subject say they generally fall into three classes — bookkeepers, junior executives, and vice presidents. There is also the cub wolf. This is usually an office boy with a desperate case of puppy love for the boss's secretary.

"Bookkeepers want to take you to a horse race on their day off," said one girl. "Junior executives are careful wolves—they want to meet you for a cocktail after work at some out-of-the-way sidestreet bar.

"And vice presidents? Well, they are the pinchers. You have to get out of their way. But I really feel sorry for vise presidents. They are such frustrated men. I guess they really lead lonely lives."

THIS YOUNG LADY said the two standard feminine formulas for dealing with office wolves are the classic cold shoulder treatment or the play-dumb answer, "Gee, Mr. Jones, I don't get what you mean."

But there is a simpler and even more effective way of handling the more persistent type.

"Just meet him at the office cooler some morning and whisper to him that you love him desperately and can't live without him," she said. "That will frighten any office wolf out of his skin."

That is the true measure of the breed. The office wolf visualizes himself as a gay Casanova going through life being endlessly fascinating. He may think he is searching for romance. But there is one thing he is sure he isn't looking for—and that is more responsibility.

But the wise boss will always be sure to hire at least one office wolf, purely as a morale factor. He keeps the girls amused. Women are always happier if there is a foolish man around for them to laugh at.

(The Associated Press)

TITLE WINNERS. Jean (left) and June Jackson, twins from Dallas, Tex. who were entered in the National Press Photographers Association "Miss National Press Photographer" contest, show signs of surprise after the judges named them winners. The girls were entered under the name of "Miss Double Exposure," in the contest held in Galveston, Tex. as part of the NPPA annual convention.

sult did not materialize. It seems that so many people oppose Truman, Trumanism, spreading Federalism, and creeping socialism that there were enough on the opposition side to carry both sets of conventions.

That seems to me to be the outstanding lesson of these conventions. There is such ardent, almost desperate feeling for a change in Washington that the outpouring of voters was overwhelming and unprecedented. They were taking two ways of accomplishing the change. One was to follow Governor Shivers and fight it out in the Democratic Party. The other was to go over to the Republican side and help nominate Eisenhower.

FINALLY, THIS Texas result was no sudden uprising, no unpremeditated act. The groundwork had been laid over many years by a movement among conservative citizens who have created organized strength and have also succeeded in altering the primary and election laws so that a citizens revolt might succeed. To these people, devoted to American traditions and determined to redeem the party, goes a large measure of the credit for this result.

of the landscape a short distance away, and held a rump convention. In one case in Fort Worth 100 qualified Democrats were present, and only six voted liberal. But the six held a rump convention and will send a contesting delegation to the county convention.

As recorded in this column last week, it was felt by the conservative leaders that so many of their followers would go over to the Republican conventions to vote for Eisenhower that they might lose on their own. That re-

Closing Show Of Ice Vogues Set for Tonight

Ice Vogues of 1952 will close its four-day engagement in Marion with a performance tonight at 8:30 in the Veterans Memorial Coliseum. The troupe will leave Marion for a five-day engagement in Waterloo, Ia., to be followed by appearances in the west and southwest of this country, Mexico and South America.

The traveling ice show drew its largest crowd in Marion at the opening night show Monday, when approximately 3,300 persons watched the 2½ hour spectacle. About 1,500 persons made up Tuesday night's audience, while about 2,000 attended the Wednesday night show.

Tickets for tonight's performance may be purchased at the Coliseum boxoffice.

Fugitives Describe Ruthless Rule Of Communist Bosses in Romania

Communist bosses ride high in Romania, but they never know what is just around the corner. Here, as in the other nations captive to Stalin, the leaders fear two things—the people and the Kremlin. Romania bars U.S. reporters, but many of the things that go on there can be learned by piecing together and checking the stories of travelers, exiles and diplomats. William L. Ryan tapped sources in Europe and the United States to write this article, the fourth of his series on the satellites.

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Foreign News Analyst

SIRENS SHRILL, traffic and pedestrians scatter.

A sleek green American car screeches to a halt opposite the state bank building on Bucharest's Kisselev St. Three sentinels snap to military attention.

Escort cars, crammed with bodyguards, pull up behind the green 1950 Oldsmobile as a guard opens the door.

Grim and unsmiling, the hammer-jawed first lady of Romanian communism steps out and walks rapidly into the building through a battalion of security militia and police agents. She does not even notice the stiff salute of her personal security chief.

Ana Pauker, for all her new riches—her four cars, her lavish villa, her legion of personal bodyguards and attendants — seems worried. Nominally, the foreign minister, she has just managed to get rid of a few high Communists who may have been her mortal enemies in high places—but how many more are there? How much longer will she last in the place of power she has held since the Russians obligingly evicted the monarchy?

The Russians have been watching her. Even the defense minister, Gen. Emil Bodnares, a Ukranian whom she has considered her ally—how long would he remain her friend if she should lose the confidence of Moscow? And there are rumors. . . .

IT WAS A CLOSE squeeze with Vasile Luca. The finance minister had a thirst for power. Even Bodnares had feared him. For Ana it was fortunate Luca's recent currency reform caused so much chaos in the country. It gave her a lever. She and Bodnares had him fired as finance minister and vice premier. They put in a less ambitious man, Dimitru Petrescu, former president of the state supply commission. Petrescu, coming from the management division of the Workers (Communist) party, is himself manageable.

Luca, at 54, had felt he was going places. A leading Communist since 1919, veteran of many jails, he had been a confidante of Gheorghe Gheorghiu-dej, the present boss of the party. It took some doing to get rid of him.

Luca had been secretary-general of the National Democratic Front in 1944, and had a big part in forcing the government's anti-Communist majority to bow to Soviet military demands. That was even before Soviet Moscow's Andrei Y. Vishinsky stormed and raged at young King Mihai and forced him from the throne.

Luca soon became secretary of the central committee and showed his mettle by destroying the anti-Communist opposition. He took part in the cominform meeting that threw Yugoslavia's Communists out of the Bolshevik family. He helped send peasant party leaders to prison.

But as finance minister, Luca ran into trouble in January of this year. He decreed that old lei were to be exchanged at rates ranging all the way up to 400 old for one new, on a sliding scale. At the same time prices were reduced. The result was chaotic.

BEFORE CURRENCY reform, the average Romanian worker earned 6,000-7,000 lei a month. Prices before currency reform were like this: A man's suit, rationed, up to 8,975 lei, or up to 19,000 on the free market; rationed shoes for women, up to 4,800 and a little higher for men's; rationed sugar, 56 lei a kilo and 200 on the free market; jam, 240 a kilo, and so forth.

There were no wage increases with currency reform, but prices were reduced 5—20 per cent. Bread, beef, and footwear for adults went down 5—10 per cent. The result was a rude jolt for the workers. There was a humming undercurrent of indignation. Luca was fired. But the worker is still being sadly exploited.

The currency reform evidently had been dictated by the Moscow bosses who sit in on the Romanian Communist government. Each Romanian ministry has a Soviet "counsellor" who has more power than the minister himself.

Major problems of government are submitted to Moscow.

The Russians also direct the army. The Soviet parade step has been introduced by special Soviet inspectors. Soldiers find the peculiar march step difficult. Soviet officers boss the Romanian army, but consider it unreliable.

They have taken over the nation's youth, too. The Young Workers Union (UTM) is a mass organization of the Communists to control youth. Only UTM members can hope for higher education.

ROMANIAN CHILDREN at 14 are considered ready for manual labor. If a child is of "bourgeois" origin, he likely will be sent into manual labor rather than to secondary school.

The youngsters chafe at Communist discipline. There are jokes like this: Two men are sitting in a restaurant. The first man says "hmm." "Yes," says the second man. The first man rises angrily: "If you're going to talk politics, I'm leaving."

The Russians are pushing the Romanian Communists into a speedup of collectivizing farms, but the peasants are resisting, despite confiscations and cruel taxes. A mighty bureaucracy presides over Romanian agriculture.

Today there are reports of a new wave of deportations in the making, the Association of Romanian Journalists, an exile group with headquarters in New York, reports: In the past few months mass deportations from Bucharest have been resumed, with city people being sent to remote places and labor camps to make room for new industrial workers. Communist functionaries and Russians. Last November all identity and ration cards were called in by the Bucharest police and returned with special markings. At the end of February the Communist Party decreed Bucharest was to become a "'workers' city" from which all "unproductive people" would be deported. The association says the goal is to expel as many as 200,000 persons from Bucharest and to extend the deportations to other large Romanian cities. The expulsions are said to be on Soviet orders, to eliminate "unreliable elements," make housing available for industrial workers and functionaries, cut down on urban consumption of food and supply manpower for slave labor programs.

Democrats In Illinois Talk Of Stevenson

May Endorse Him For President Despite His Plea

Illinois Democrats convened at Springfield today amid talk of drafting their Gov Adlai Stevenson for presidential nomination despite his plea. "Don't put me in an awkward spot"

Stevenson, reportedly President Truman's choice as a successor until he said he was running only for governor this year, is in Camp Cooke, Calif. He held a 30-minute telephone conversation last night with Jacob M Arvey, Democratic national committeeman from Illinois

"I said I hoped that they would not put me in an awkward spot by proposing me for the presidency," Stevenson told reporters "I made it as emphatic as I always have that I am a candidate only for re-election as governor of Illinois"

Arvey, in Springfield, appeared not to have given up on getting the convention to endorse Stevenson for presidential nomination

The convention will name 20 at-large delegates to the July national convention Each of the 20 will have a half-vote, completing Illinois' 70-vote delegation

Sen Robert Taft of Ohio, who reaped all of Ohio's 56 Republican votes on Tuesday, claimed sure nomination. Taft's headquarters said it gives him 404 votes and the Ohioan told newsmen he won t be topped

Nomination requires 604 GOP votes, 616 Democratic votes, The Associated Press delegate tabulation—based on concessions, pledges, instructions and avowed leanings—gives:

Republicans — Taft 332, Gen Dwight Eisenhower 280

Democrats — Kefauver 104½ foreign aid chief W Averell Harriman 93½, Russell 41½.

Fail To Find Crazed Felons

Hunt Lima Hospital Escapees in Park

CLEVELAND (AP)—Police in suburban Parma unsuccessfully searched a wooded park area today for two crazed criminals who escaped the Lima State Hospital by threatening to slit guards' throats

A passing motorist started the 11 p m to 1 a m hunt by reporting he saw two men answering the fugitives' descriptions.

The hunt was in part of the Cleveland metropolitan park system, which swings in a giant horseshoe around the city s limits

Both Parma and Strongsville—where an escape car was found abandoned—are south of Cleveland.

considering the use of the Taft-Hartley act at this stage He declined comment on the steel dispute while it is before the Supreme Court

3—There was no politics in the Federal Reserve Board"s relaxation of credit controls Wednesday The board uses its control powers, he said, to meet threats of inflation and deflation alike He added he hopes Congress won't get the idea these control powers are no longer needed

4—He's confident the Democratic platform to be adopted at Chicago will support a compulsory Fair Employment Practices Commission (FEPC). He said he hasn't budged a bit from his support of that plank in the 1948 platforms of both Democratic and Republican parties

Taking the case directly to the Russians could have indirect beneficial results for the Allies even if the Kremlin rejected the armistice proposal A rejection by Moscow would leave Russia in the position of virtually ordering her Chinese and Korean satellites to continue a war which has helped only the Russian Communists

Many in Prison, Under House Arrest

Missionaries in China Persecuted by Reds

NEW YORK (AP)—The worst mass persecution of American missionaries in our history now is going on in Communist China, church leaders said today

They gave this statistical picture

32 American missionaries in prison.

25 under house arrest.

136 others restricted in their movements, prevented from leaving the country and subjected to criminal accusations and attacks

'Their situation has become extremely grave," said Dr Wallace C Merwin, head of the China Committee of the Foreign Missions Division of the National Council of Churches of Christ in the U S A

Both Roman Catholic and Protestant leaders said that never in any land has there been such widespread, official persecution of American missionaries since the first ones went out nearly 150 years ago

It has smashed one of the most extensively supported mission fields of American churches, which five years ago had 2,986 missionaries in China — 2,536 Protestants and 450 American Catholics

Only 193 are left

All of them—153 Catholics and 40 Protestants—are reported under various kinds of restrictions charges and punishment

Church spokesmen said the State Department, presumably through nations that have relations with Red China, is seeking to intervene in behalf of the missionaries. But no details of the efforts were given.

Until this month, the churches have been guardedly untalkative about the overall status of the China missionaries, for fear of causing added reprisals against them.

Rail Unions Ask Court Rule Seizure Illegal

WASHINGTON (AP) — Three big railroad unions are asking the Supreme Court to rule President Truman's railroad seizure illegal at the same time the high court decides the legality of the President's steel seizure

The unions—the Engineers, Firemen and Conductors—are happy over congressional protests touched off by Truman's seizure of the steel mills, but somewhat dismayed that presidential seizure of the roads in 1950 failed to produce a similar reaction

However, the railroad seizure has practically no similarity to the steel industry seizure. Truman took over the roads under a law passed in 1916 and still usable, the government claims, in time of war or emergency

Anti-Strike Bill Hit By Labor Leaders

Provides for 80-Day Injunction, Govt. Receivership

WASHINGTON (AP)—Spokesmen for organized labor condemned the Smith anti-strike bill today as shocking and viciously anti-labor

In statements prepared for delivery at a House armed services committee hearing considering the bill, William Green, head of the American Federation of Labor, and Joseph Curran, vice president of the Congress of Industrial Organizations, attacked the bill as a one-sided measure favoring management

The bill, introduced last week by Rep Howard W Smith (D-Va), provides for 80-day injunctions to prevent strikes affecting national security and for operation of unions and industry by court-appointed receivers after 80 days if no agreement has been reached It would prevent changes in wages or working conditions during the period of negotiations and receivership and would allow Congress as well as the President to initiate the injunction proceedings

Calls It Insult to Labor

Green said the legislation would have a "catastrophic" effect on the morale of workers He called it "a gratuitous insult" to organized labor

Curran, who also is president of the National Maritime Union, said the CIO is completely opposed to each and every provision of the bill He termed it "as viciously anti-labor a bill as has ever been introduced in Congress"

Curran claims the bill was designed to break strikes and "to break unions by ruining them financially and by turning them over to the direction and control of government administrators" was as dramatic as any of the film fiction he presented.

Native of Hungary

Fox was born in Hungary He emigrated to the United States and became a $17-a-week pants presser on New York's drab Lower East Side

The refusal of his boss to give him a $3 raise started him on his fabulous movie career. He quit the ironing board and bought a rundown nickelodeon in Brooklyn with his meager savings

The dingy nickelodeon was the forerunner of the Fox Films Corporation and the Fox Theaters Corporation. His first films were produced at a studio in Fort Lee, N J.

Later, his Hollywood studios produced such well-remembered films as "What Price Glory" and "Seventh Heaven"

He had been living quietly at Foxhall, Woodmere, on Long Island. He is survived by his widow, the former Eva Leo, and two daughters

Machine Does Work of Heart And Lungs, Revives Man

DALLAS (AP) — A $60 heart-lung machine pumped a man's blood for 75 minutes, changing him from a sickly blue to healthy pink, a surgeon announced today

The machine gave him an extra heart and extra lung to fight a mysterious lung disease It drew blood from a vein in his leg, purified it of carbon dioxide, gave it fresh oxygen, and pumped the blood back into an artery in his arm

The dramatic story was reported to the American Association for Thoracic Surgery by Dr James Helmsworth, University of Cincinnati Medical School

He called it the first such successful use of an artificial heart-lung on humans in this country All the while, the man's own heart and lungs kept working.

Dies Later of Disease

The man died, however, several weeks after the experiment Dr B N Carter of the University of Cincinnati medical school said the man had an "incurable lung disease" and that the heart pumping was done only to give him relief in his breathing

Today's report marks a big step toward a major goal—of having machines that will let surgeons completely by-pass a patient's own heart and lungs, and operate on them while they are freed from work.

Mechanical hearts that by-pass just one side of the heart already have worked on humans.

The machine was perfected by scientists working at the Fels Research Institute for the study of human development at Antioch College, Yellow Springs, O., in a joint project of the University of Cincinnati, Fels Institute and Research Foundation of Children's Hospital, Cincinnati

Red Germany Threatens To Raise Army

Seen as Attempt To Block Adenauer's Alignment With West

BERLIN (AP)—East Germany s Communist government hurled new threats today to set up their own army—something the West says they already have—if West Germany lines up with western defense

Prime Minister Otto Grotewohl telegraphed Soviet Prime Minister Stalin that West Germany's nearly complete peace contract with the Western allies threatens civil war and the Soviet zone will arm to meet it

East German President Wilhelm Pieck said on May Day that western signing of the peace contract —expected before the end of May —would compel the East to raise a defense force Last night leaders of the East Zone s ruling Socialist Unity (Communist) party wired Stalin such an army necessary for defense "against aggression," would be raised

The Western Allies have said for months, however, that East Germany already has a trained nucleus army in its 50 000-man state police and 10,000-man sea police unit

The telegrams to the Soviet Union's prime minister were sent on the occasion of the anniversary today of the Soviet conquest of the Nazi armies

Playing cards are believed to have come from Asia, but some authorities believe that the Egyptians invented them.

N.Y. Buys Bill Howerton

Pirate Outfielder Replaces Mays

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The New York Giants, who will lose Centerfielder Willie Mays to the Army in ten days, had another outfielder on their roster today but where he'll fit in no one seems to know.

The defending National League champions bought Bill Howerton for the waiver price of $10,000 Wednesday from the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Giant Manager Leo Durocher made no bones about the fact that he was happy over the transaction.

"I don't know yet just where Howerton will fit in," said Durocher. "All I know is I'm glad to have him. He does everything well and I know he can handle the centerfield berth. He can run and throw and he can hit pretty good, too. For one thing, he'll make a fine pinch-hitter."

Results Listed in Two State Senate Contests

Results of Tuesday's voting for state senator show Tom V. Moorehead in the 15th and 16th Senatorial district, Republican incumbent, winner of renomination with no Democratic opponent. He is virtually assured of election in fall voting. The district includes Delaware County.

David M. Ferguson, Republican incumbent, was renominated and Emmett R. Guthrie, was nominated as his Democratic opponent, in the 17th, 18th, 19th, and 28th State Senatorial districts. Morrow County is in those districts.

Bishop Gives Advice To Heavy Drinkers

WORCESTER, Mass. (UP)—To men who drink too much, here's the advice of Catholic Bishop John J. Wright:

"First build a bar in your own home and be the only customer. Then you have neither license nor protection to pay. Give your wife $6 to buy the first quart of liquor—remembering there should be at least 16 drinks in the quart.

"Buy the drinks from no one but your wife and pay at the rate a bar would charge. By the time the first quart is finished, she will have $6 to put in the bank and $6 to start business again.

"If you live 10 years and continue to buy from her, you can then die of delirium tremens and she will have plenty to bury you, educate your children, marry a decent man, and forget the misery you brought her."

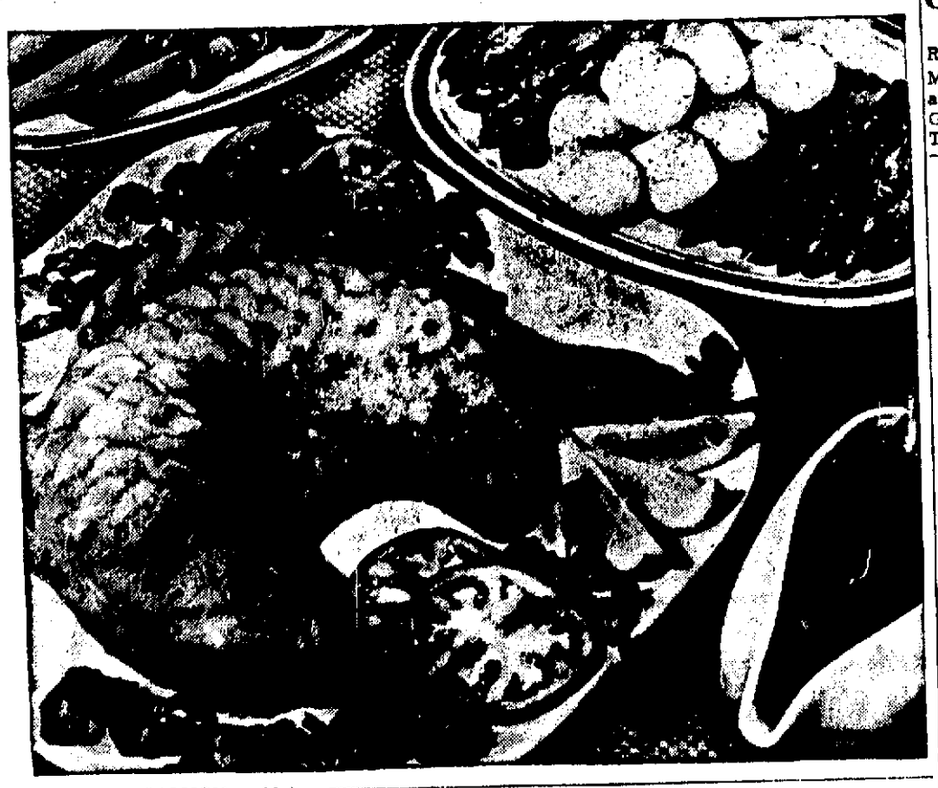
Sauce Makes Salmon Mold Glamour Dish



A SIMPLE SALMON mold becomes a glamour dish when it's served with a spicy rich sauce. Proudly set this one before the company, sit back and then bask in the compliments that are sure to come your way.

SALMON MOLD

2 cups thin cream sauce
1 bay leaf, very finely crumbled
1 T lemon juice
¼ cup shredded cheddar cheese
½ t salt
1/16 t pepper
2 eggs, lightly beaten
2 cups flaked salmon (13 oz. can)
1 T each minced pimento and green pepper
1 cup soft bread crumbs
1 cup cooked elbow macaroni

Combine ingredients in order given. Turn into greased fish-shaped 1 quart mold or loaf pan. Bake in moderate oven (350 F.) 35 to 40 minutes. Unmold onto serving platter. Serves six. If desired bottom of fish-shaped mold may be garnished with extra pieces of cooked macaroni to give "scale" effect. Strips of pimento accent the gills and a slice of stuffed olive serves as an eye.

SAUCE PIQUANTE

2 T butter or margarine
3 T flour
1 bay leaf
⅛ t cayenne
¼ t ground thyme
¼ t salt
1/16 t pepper
3 T minced onion
¼ cup finely chopped celery
1½ T grated lemon rind
1 can (1 1/3 cups) condensed consomme
½ cup water
¾ cup Maderia wine (or dry white wine), optional

Melt butter in top of double boiler over low heat. Stir in flour. When smooth, brown lightly, stirring constantly. Remove from heat. Stir in consomme and water. Bring to boil, stirring constantly. Set over hot water. Add remaining ingredients except wine.

Heat 20 minutes, stirring occasionally. Strain. Add wine. Bring just to boil and serve immediately. Makes 2¼ cups.

Note: If wine is omitted, add liquid from 4 oz. can of mushrooms along with water. After straining, add finely chopped mushrooms.

Green Camp Girl Crowned Queen

GREEN CAMP — Miss Lois Rothfuss was crowned queen of May by Grange Master Joe Lyon at the May 1 meeting of Mt. Olive Grange held in the township hall. The throne was surrounded by groups of children of various ages, each group representing some flower of the early spring season, also the attedants who were the runners-up in the contest. Balloting for the queen was conducted at the two regular meetings of the Grange in April.

The queen's attendants were Kitty Kempton, Donna Converse, Lee Ann Wickline, Marilyn Lindley, Becky Converse, Mrs. Jenalee Arndt and Mrs. Anna Mae Hilborn. The queen, attendants and escorts David Deeds, Richard Knachel, Ronald Lindley, Kenneth Hedges, Richard Lyons, Paul Clay, William Carey and Richard Porter participated in a May pole dance. During the entire program, directed by Mrs. Nina Ruth Hedges, lecturer, vocal music was furnished by Mrs. Jane Smith and Mrs. Jean Dreyer, accompanied by Mrs. Lena Bricker.

During the business session $10 was voted to the cancer campaign. It was announced the county memorial services would be at Grand Prairie school June 15. The Mt. Olive quartet, winners in the local quartet competition recently, Kenneth Hedges, Richard Knachel, Miss Lois Rothfuss and Mrs. Jenalee Arndt, accompanied by Mrs. Nina Ruth Hedges, will sing.

Two Galion Women Celebrate 90th Birthdays This Week

Special to The Star

GALION—Two Galion women, Mrs. Elizabeth Wiggs and Mrs. Nana Leaming who lives with Mrs. Bessie Mason of Galion, are celebrating their 90th birthdays this week.

Mrs. Wiggs held a birthday dinner at her home Wednesday and open house in the afternoon and evening for her friends. She was born May 7, 1862, the daughter of John Christopher and Nancy Reed Beltz. Her grandmother who came from Germany lived to be over 100 years old. Mrs. Wiggs is the last of her family. She had three sisters and two brothers. She was married to W. R. Wiggs who died a number of years ago. Two sons, John, died suddenly in 1939, and Carl who was killed in 1932. Mrs. Wiggs has three grandchildren and five great-grandchildren. She is a member of First Lutheran Church, and is in fairly good health.

Mrs. Leaming welcomed friends Tuesday but last Saturday she enjoyed a birthday dinner at the home of Mrs. Clara Drake. She was born May 6, 1862, at Sharon, O. When she was a small girl she came to the vicinity of West Point with her parents. She was married in 1897 to George Leaming and in 1910 they entered governmental Indian service, and were stationed at Pine Ridge, S. D., among the Agalala Sioux Indians, and later at the Hopi Reservation in Arizona. They retired in 1927. Mrs. Leaming belongs to Naomi Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, and also to the Women's Relief Corps

Today's Birthday

JAMES HOWARD KINDELBERGER, born May 8, 1895, in Wheeling, W. Va., son of a steel mill molder.

Airplane manufacturer and chairman of the board of North American Aviation, Inc., Kindelberger is known as the first mass producer in his industry. Nicknamed "Dutch," he took a correspondence course in mechanical engineering, joined the Army Engineers in 1913, and served as flying instructor in the Signal Corps in World War I.

Most human cancer is found in older people, but no age is exempt.

ELECTED PRESIDENT

BUCYRUS—Rev. Kurt Meuschke of Sulphur Springs is the new president of the Capital University Alumni Association. He was elected to succeed Rev. C. C. Wannemacher of Galion at the annual reorganizational meeting held Wednesday night at New Washington. Other officers are: vice president, Rev. Karl Diemer of Crestline; secretary, Mrs. Lewis Nicol of New Washington; treasurer, George Beck of Crestline, and directors, Marvin Ross of Chatfield and Rev. Philip Auer of Galion. Principal speaker was Jack Landrum, head football coach at the university.

HUG FOR SURVIVOR. Navy Yard employe Vincent Taylor hugs his son, John, shortly after he arrived in New York aboard the damaged flattop Wasp. The young sailor was one of the men saved when the destroyer Hobson took 175 others to death following the mid-Atlantic crash on April 26.

Oil Unions Refuse To End Walkout

May Result In Sending Dispute To White House

DENVER (AP)—Refusal of 22 AFL, CIO and independent oil industry unions to call an end to their week-old strike may send the wage dispute to President Truman.

The Wage Stabilization Board (WSB) in Washington, D. C., scheduled a meeting for today, Wednesday. WSB Chairman Nathan P. Feinsinger told the House labor committee the case probably would be sent to the White House if the board failed to obtain an end to the strike.

Feinsinger had requested the unions to send their men back to work.

O. A. Knight, president of the Oil Workers International Union (CIO) in Denver, said last night the strike will continue. He added the unions will have representatives at a WSB meeting May 13 as requested.

"In light of the history of the dispute and of the WSB's apparent inability to affect industry participation in WSB hearings, we have no alternative but to continue our strike," Knight said.

"We have patiently attempted to achieve peaceful settlements, but to no avail. We have cooperated with the board, but to no avail. We were finally forced to strike and we must continue striking until settlements are reached."

Knight pointed out that the dispute dates back to September, 1951, and was postponed three times before refinery and pipeline workers went out.

The WSB had returned the dispute to the unions and management April 16 for more collective bargaining after inability to get hearings underway. It retained temporary jurisdiction, however.

A pattern for settlement may be drawn from an agreement reached late Wednesday between CIO workers and the Rock Island Refinery near Indianapolis. They settled for an 18-cent hourly increase. Pickets were to be removed today.

The unions are asking a wage increase of 25 cents hourly and hikes in night shift differentials. Knight said that any company offer of 18½ cents hourly probably would be accepted.

Taft Blasts High Taxes

They Stifle New Industry, He Says

WHEELING, W. Va. (AP)—Sen. Taft (R-Ohio) accuses the Truman administration of stifling new industry by taking from 50 to 70 per cent of business profits in taxes.

"Themendous government taxation and spending has choked the whole progress of industry," he told a Republican rally of 800 persons here Wednesday night.

The GOP presidential aspirant declared there is little incentive for businessmen to invest their money in new plants, and added:

"In the past 13 years the dollar has depreciated 47 per cent. Prices have risen at least 100 per cent and the public debt has increased to 260 billion dollars.

"Now Mr. Truman wants to spend 85 billion with a 14 billion dollar deficit for the next fiscal year."

Taft said that not only means more taxes but more inflation. He made several stops in his campaign swing through West Virginia Wednesday. Harold E. Stassen is Taft's only competition in the state's presidential preference primaries next Tuesday.

N.Y. Stock Quotations

NEW YORK (INS)—The stock market displayed flashes of real strength today with many issues advancing 1 to nearly 2 points. It was the fifth advancing session of the last six days.

Impetus to today's rise was given by the overnight lifting of government installment credit restrictions. There was an early rush to buy shares of companies in industries manufacturing such consumer items as automobiles, television sets and appliances, which would normally be helped by this action.

Yankee Castoffs Spark Washington In Six-Game Streak

Nats Continue Romp As Champs Rest In Fifth

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

Bucky Harris and his Yankee refugees are licking their chops over a six-game Washington win streak while the world champ Yankees squirm in the second division.

Ever since the "Big Deal" sent Jackie Jensen, Archie Wilson and Spec Shea to Washington for Irv Noren, the ex-Yanks have been hitting and pitching like crazy.

Since they traded New York flannels for Washington, Wilson has hit .528, Jensen, .450 and Shea has pitched 1-0.

Jensen cashed in two more hits Wednesdsay night in the Senators' 6-2 romp over feeble Detroit. The veteran Sid Hudson didn't need much help behind his five-hit effort.

While the Senators continued to spree, the Yanks still were shaking their heads over the strange sight of two straight Cleveland wins at Yankee Stadium.

Browns Shutout

Philadelphia's Alex Kellner shoved the St. Louis Browns a little closer to their old home in the second division with a fine 1-0 triumph over Earl Harrist. Eddie Joost's double, a sacrifice and an outfield fly accounted for the only run in the first inning. Kellner gave five hits, Harrist only four.

Brooklyn headed home from its first western trip, still in possession of the National League lead, with the help of some strong arm relief pitching by Johnny Rutherford in their 5-4 triumph over Cincinnati.

Don't let anybody tell you the Leo Durocher-Eddie Stanky battles won't be for blood. Durocher used his two New York Giant aces—Sal Maglie and Larry Jansen—to subdue Stanky's St. Louis Cardinals 3-1.

Musial Doubles

Stan Musial opened the Card ninth with a double. Maglie was shaken up covering first base retiring Peanuts Lowrey. When Sal walked Wally Westlake and threw one ball to Enos Slaughter, Durocher took him out. Jansen, a righthander, was a surprise choice against lefthanded swinging Enos Slaughter. But Slaughter made Leo look good by rapping into a game-ending double play.

It was Maglie's victory, his fifth straight. In 45 innings "The Barber" has allowed but 22 hits and just five earned runs. He gave up only six hits to the Cards, two by Solly Hemus who had 23 hits in his last 40 times at bat.

Howie Pollett broke into the win column for the first time this year with a five-hitter as Pittsburgh broke a six-game losing slump to whip the Phillies, 5-1. The scheduled Boston-at-Chicago day game was postponed because of cold.

Shelby First In NOL Meet

UPPER SANDUSKY — Shelby High School's tracksters had their first taste of victory Wednesday in the Northern Ohio League's annual meet since the founding of the league affair seven years ago. Upper Sandusky had won the contest five out of the six years.

Shelby won the meet with 57⅓ points, four ahead of the second-place Rams who ended with 53⅓. Galion was third, Norwalk fourth, Willard fifth, Bucyrus sixth and Bellevue seventh.

Although the winners gained only three first places, they piled up the points on second and third placings. Shelby had three firsts, while both Galion and Upper Sandusky had five each. Norwalk and Willard had one first each, while Bucyrus and Bellevue failed to score in that position.

Following the meet Upper Sandusky Superintendent Roger L. Downing presented Shelby with the Northern Ohio League trophy. Participating contestants also were presented with awards in each event.

Telephone, Fairfield, Marion Metal and McMillen Win

The Telephone Company, Fairfield Engineering, Marion Metal and McMillen Feed posted wins in the opening session of the YMCA Industrial League No. 2 Wednesday night.

In games played at Garfield Park, the Telephone nine whipped Baker Wood, 6-3; Fairfield edged Huber, 4-3; and Marion Metal downed the C & O, 7-4. In a single game at McKinley Park, McMillen laced Jay Maish, 8-4.

The McMillen team posted three runs in the first frame and added four in the fourth to rout the Maish squad. Each team banged out seven base knocks.

The Telephone company came from behind with three runs in the sixth and three in the seventh to whip the Baker Wood squad. The three-run rally came on two hits, two bases on balls and an error by the losers.

Fairfield scored two runs in the seventh inning after Huber had forged ahead, 3-2, in the top of that frame with a single marker. The winners collected their runs on a total of four hits. Huber also had four bingles.

Marion Metal took an early lead over C & O with a two-run splurge in the opening inning. They came back with a single tally in the third and clinched the verdict in the fifth with four runs. The Railroaders scored two in the second and two in the fifth.

Davey Wins Title Shot With Easy Win Over Vejar

CHICAGO (AP)—It was deceptive Chuck Davey's southpaw style, and ballet-dancer footwork, that guillotined 20-year-old Chico Vejar Wednesday night.

Beaten only once in 42 previous bouts, Vejar, New York University freshman was as wide open to Davey's left hook as a prepared oyster, and about as sloppy.

The kid was knocked down four times in the 10-round bout. But that's nothing new to him. In five other scraps he had been floored and courageously arose to win.

Before 8,773 Chicago Stadium fans and millions of others on television and radio, Davey proved by his easy victory his worth as a foremost contender for Cuba Kid Gavilan's welterweight title.

The International Boxing Club, knowing full well that it has a hit on its hands in Davey, the 26-year-old holder of a master's degree from Michigan State, promptly began preparations for a championship showdown between the two for Chicago this summer. Davey has won 33 bouts without a defeat.

Card Owner Denies Story Rickey May Return To St. Louis

NEW YORK (AP)—There was a report today that Branch Rickey is slated to return to St. Louis as owner of the Cardinals, but it met hasty denial.

Fred Saigh, president and owner of the Cards, said, "I have not heard of any such possibility." Rickey himself was off on a speaking trip and unavailable for comment.

Dan Parker, sports editor of the New York Daily Mirror, wrote that "baseball circles are buzzing with the report "that Rickey, general manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates, will make a bid for Saigh's stock if Saigh's income tax difficulties should result in his leaving baseball.

Whales, although they breathe air, can stay under water as much as 45 minutes.

Reds on Road After Second Brooklyn Loss

CINCINNATI (AP)—The Cincinnati Reds already are in the red after one go-around with the National League's eastern clubs.

Brooklyn's 5 to 4 victory over the Redlegs Wednesday night made the Cincinnati record four victories and five defeats in the season's opening series with the east.

The Reds won two from Philadelphia and two of three from Boston but they dropped two to New York and two to the Dodgers.

The Reds were the victims of some fancy relief pitching Wednesday by Rookie Johnny Rutherford. Just when it looked as if they might wipe out a four-run Brooklyn lead Rutherford relieved Chris Van Cuyk and stopped the Rhinelanders cold the rest of the way even though they managed to get one run off him.

Frank Hiller, who had won three starts in a row, lasted only through the first three innings and in that time was shelled for seven singles and four runs.

Bud Byerly gave up what eventually proved to be the winning run and then Harry Perkowski throttled the Dodgers the rest of the way.

The third inning was the big scoring frame for both teams.

Hiller got two out before he yielded five straight singles and three runs in the Dodgers' half of the inning. The Reds then knocked Van Cuyk out of the box in their half with a three-run barrage.

They got only three hits off Rutherford in the last six and two-thirds innings, however.

The Reds headed out today on their first long road trip of the season with a record of having won nine games and lost six at home thus far. They have won three of five games away from home.

First stop on the tour will be St. Louis Friday and then the boys head east.

NBA Protests Robinson, Maxim Bout

NEW YORK (AP)—The chairman of the New York State Athletic Commission shrugged of NBA opposition to the Ray Robinson-Joey Maxim bout today and proceeded to tie up loose ends of what he calls the "fight of the century."

"Could it be that this criticism stems from the fact that the bout is not being held in NBA territory?" asked Chairman Robert K. Christenberry.

The NBA—National Boxing Association, which governs the sport in every state except New York—issued a blast after the fighters formally signed Wednesday to meet June 23 at Yankee Stadium.

Maxim is the light heavyweight champion. His title will be at stake in the 15-round battle with Robinson, former welterweight and now middleweight king who aspires to become the third man in history to head three divisions.

The NBA announced in Washington that it frown on such interclass bouts, declaring the champions should first defeat all logical contenders in their divisions.

Colonels Dropped In Association

By The Associated Press

Louisville dropped to a full game behind league-leading Milwaukee Wednesday night in their feud for the American Association lead by losing 8-3 to St. Paul.

While the Brewers' date at Toledo was postponed by cold weather, Louisville was victimized by the relief pitching of Ron Negray and Al Epperly. The former spaced eight hits over 7 2/3 innings and Epperly hurled hitless ball to the finish.

For the third game in a row, Columbus bagged a one-run victory by shading Kansas City 4-3 in 14 innings. With two out, Jim Neufeldt singled home Dan Lynch with the clincher to break the Blues' four-game winning streak.

Minneapolis downed Indianapolis 5-4 after checking a four-run seventh by the Tribe.

Robb Accepts Umpire Spot In American Loop

CHICAGO (AP) — Umpire Douglas W. "Scotty" Robb, formerly of the National League, has been snapped up by the American League—the quickest change of sides by an arbitrator in major baseball history.

Forty eight hours after Robb, a four-year veteran of the Senior Circuit's call-'em-as-you-see-'em set, resigned following a fine and disciplinary action by League President Warren Giles, he was hired by Will Harridge, boss of the American Loop.

Robb will make his debut in his new job in the White Sox-Boston Red Sox game at Comiskey Park Tuesday night.

Robb was accused of shoving Manager Eddie Stanky of the St. Louis Cardinals in a game at Cincinnati April 22. Giles fined him and disciplined him, announcing it to the public.

Stanky was tapped for $50 and Cardinal Shortstop Solly Hemus, who started the altercation by tossing his bat in the air when he was called out on strikes, was fined $25.

Robb resigned Monday.

ASSISTANT NAMED

Tribe Takes 7-2 Verdict

Lopez Confident After Second Win From Yanks

NEW YORK (AP)—Al Lopez, general manager of the Indians, thinks he finally has found the formula for bringing the American League pennant to Cleveland.

"It's simple," he confided following Wednesday's 7-2 victory over New York. "Just beat those Yankees. That's all"

A happy grin spread over Lopez' face. "Now, why didn't I think of that last year?" he added facetiously.

There was good reason for Lopez' jubilation. His Indians, chief contenders with the Yankees for American League honors, had just whipped their arch rivals for the second time in less than 24 hours. That's something they couldn't do at Yankee Stadium during the entire 1951 season when they managed to win just one out of 11 at the Yankees' home park.

"I really believe we will win the pennant this year," Lopez said. "Not only because we proved we could beat the Yankees in their own backyard. But because we've been winning although we haven't had all the regulars together since the first week of the season. It stands to reason that we ought to be better when we get back to full strength."

Lacks Hitting

Lopez' chief worry right now is the team's hitting, or lack of it. But he feels good hitters like Easter, Mitchell, Doby and the rest, are bound to find their batting eye soon.

Lopez took exception to a recent article calling the Indians' mound corps a four-man pitching staff.

"Four man, heck," he said. "We've got at least six starters and maybe seven. What about Steve Gromek, Sam Jones and Bob Chakales? They'd be starters on any team. It's just that so far we've had little need of them. What with rain and off days we haven't had to push our pitchers too much. That made it possible for me to pitch my first four in regular turn. But don't go calling it a four-man staff. I've got six starters and three relievers and they're all good."

Garcia, notching his third victory against two defeats Wednesday, gave up 12 hits, but kept them scattered. The Yankees collected only two extra-base hits, while Cleveland's 11 hits off three Yankee pitchers included a homer by Rosen and doubles by Easter and Mitchell.

Raschi Chased

Yankee Starter Vic Raschi lasted just five innings and five runs and failed to finish for the fifth straight time He was charged with his second loss against as many victories.

The Tribe got two runs in the first. Avilla singled, stole second and scored on a single by Rosen. Easter singled Rosen to third and the third baseman scored on a fly. The Indians added another in the third on Rosen's homer.

New York got a run in the third when Raschi doubled, advanced on a sacrifice and scored on a fly. A mixup in Cleveland's outfield gave the Yankees their other run in the fifth. Irv Noren singled and ran all the way around when Mitchell, Harry Simpson and Ray Boone couldn't make up their minds who should catch Yogi Berra's popper to left field. The ball hit the ground and went for a double.

The Indians made single tallies in the fourth and fifth. In the ninth, with the bases loaded, Easter cuffed what looked like a sure double play ball. But Gil McDougal, fumbling it, threw to second for the forceout too late for the relay to catch Luke at first. Meanwhile, Avilla raced home from second without drawing a throw Bob Feller, the only Cleveland hurler to win in Yankee Stadium last year, tries today to give the Indians their first three-game sweep there since 1947. Ed Lopat starts for the Yankees.

HEAD BOYS' CLUB

COLUMBUS (AP)—The Boys' Club of America yesterday elected William H. Montgomery of Chicago, and John Thornberry of Kansas City, Mo., as presidents of its organizational branches. The group is holding its 46th annual convention here. The four-day session ends with a banquet tonight.

IN A DIFFERENT LEAGUE. Umpire Douglas "Scotty" Robb, who resigned as a National League arbiter, accepts a new umpiring assignment with the American League in a telephone conversation at his Cedar Grove, N.J., home. Robb had been fined and reprimanded by National League President Warren Giles for pushing St. Louis Manager Ed Stanky.

Maxim Wait Ends, Signs For Big Money

By GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK (AP) — Joey Maxim, the thickset lightheavyweight champion of the world, was waiting stolidly in the offices of the New York State Athletic Commission for Sugar Ray Robinson to show up and sign the papers for their 15-round fight at Yankee Stadium on June 23 He was asked if he wasn't getting weary of waiting for the Pride of Harlem.

"Not me," grinned Maxie, displaying two rows of strong teeth, "For this kind of money I can wait a long time. I've waited for a whole lot less. It hasn't been long since I was fighting some very tough monkeys for two-three-four thousand dollars. One period of 15 months I think I had 24 fights"

For all his scores of fights with many of the best big men in the game, the 30-year-old Clevelander shows scarcely a mark He bears only a few razor-thin scars around the eyes, and his cheek bones and nose are not puffed or warped. He looks like what he is, a consummate boxer. He will have two inches in height and some 14-15 pounds in weight on Robinson, and is sublimely certain he can whale the Sugar Boy

ROBINSON, WHEN HE FINALLY arrived for the signing, said quite frankly that he had no real hope of knocking out his heavier opponent. An admirer said he was surprised at this "defeatest" attitude on the part of the middleweight champ.

"It isn't defeatist," the slender Negro protested. "I swear I don't feel any different about him than about all the others. It's just that I know he can take a punch. I know that if I beat him it will be with speed, and I'm faster than he is Of course, if I see I've got him hurt, I'll try to finish him Maybe I hit a little sharper than Joey does. I'm not too worried about his weight. Jake LaMotta outweighed me about 14 pounds first time I fought him"

GEORGE GAINFORD, THE OUTSIZE manager of Sugar Ray, said he had put $20,000 in escrow to guarantee Maxim a return bout in the event he loses his 175-pound crown to Robinson.

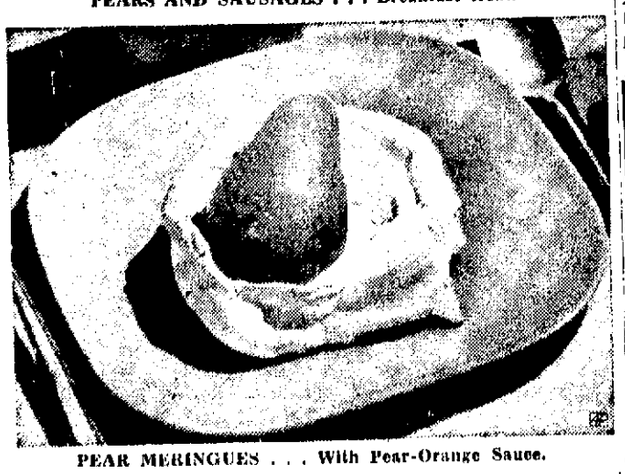
Making the Most of Pears

PEARS AND SAUSAGES . . . Breakfast treat.



PEAR MERINGUES . . . With Pear-Orange Sauce.

By CECILY BROWNTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

Canned Bartlett pears, now plentiful on market shelves, can pep up meals because they are so versatile. For breakfast, for instance, team them with golden-brown pork sausages. Serve the pears straight from the can or sprinkle them with brown sugar and broil just enough to heat through; put a spoonful of currant jelly in each core cavity for color. Along with hot rolls and coffee, this is a fine main dish to serve to Sunday brunch guests. Start the menu with chilled orange juice and cereal.

Canned pears make a delicious luncheon salad that's no trouble to prepare. Arrange the pear halves on a bed of torn mixed greens. Fill the core cavities of the pears with creamed cottage cheese studded with nuggets of crumbled Roquefort; garnish with strips of pimiento. Serve with a creamy French dressing that has enough paprika in it to make it a pretty pink.

For a festive dessert fill individual meringue shells with vanilla, chocolate, or orange ice cream; top with a canned pear half and accompany with the following sauce:

PEAR ORANGE SAUCE

Ingredients: 2 tablespoons cornstarch, 1 No. 2½ can pears, 1 tablespoon grated orange rind, ¼ cup orange juice.

Method: Put cornstarch in a saucepan; drain a little of the syrup from the pears and mix with cornstarch until smooth; stir in remaining pear syrup, orange rind, and orange juice. Cook and stir over moderately low heat until thickened. Chill; serve over meringue shells filled with ice cream and topped with pear halves.

Galion School Patrol Youth To Go On Trip

Special to The Star

GALION—This year, 11 members of the School Safety Patrol of Galion have been chosen to attend the 16th National School Safety Patrol Assembly and parade in Washington, D. C., May 9 and 10. While this is the fifth year that patrols have been sent from the Galion schools to Washington, it is the largest group ever to be selected.

The School Safety Patrol is sponsored by the Galion Automobile Club of which Grace Thomas is secretary. Besides the automobile club, the Rotary, Lions Club Fraternal Order of Police, Knights of Columbus, the East, West, North and South PTA organizations are each sponsoring one pupil to the national assembly.

In Galion, the automobile club is assisted in this safety movement by the city police department and Safety Officer Morris Bowers.

Social Security Payments Go To 1,679 in County

Checks for insurance payments under Federal social security went to 1,679 aged persons, children and their widowed mothers in Marion County in December, G. L. Schlueter, manager of the Marion social security office, reported today. The payments amounted to $57,567.

More than one-third of all people over 65 in the United States who can not count on income from work for support are getting social security insurance benefits, he said. About 833 persons over age 65 in Marion County are receiving these payments.

Schlueter said three out of every four mothers and young children in the nation are now assured of monthly payments if the insured breadwinner of the family dies.

In this connection, he cited monthly payments totaling $12,007 to 348 children, and 83 widowed mothers in the Marion area. These monthly payments are going to families deprived of earned income by the untimely death of a wage earner.

NEVADA GROUP MEETS

A talk, "Work Among Farm Women," was given by Cletabelle Eyestone. Refreshments were served. The next meeting will be a tea for mothers and a display of work.

Loses 70 Lbs. and 8 In. From Waist with Rennel

Lancaster Man Finds Better Health—So Can You

"I am 53 years old, and had always been overweight," writes D. E. Groves, 157 E. Fair Ave., Lancaster, Ohio. "Before taking Rennel I was also troubled with pains in my legs and knees. Now since I have been using Rennel the pains have left my legs, knees and hips entirely, and I have lost 70 lbs. and 8 inches from my waistline. I have not enjoyed such good health as I am enjoying now for many years. At least 5 of my friends are taking Rennel since they know what it has done for me."

Thousands have overcome the social and physical discomfort of being overweight with this effective home recipe. Obtain liquid Rennel at your drug store, mix with grapefruit juice as directed and take two tablespoonfuls twice a day. That's all there is to it. If reducible pounds and inches of excess fat don't seem to disappear almost like magic with the very first bottle, just return it to the manufacturer for your money back. You need never know a hungry moment while reducing with Rennel. Note how quickly bloat disappears—how much better you feel. More alive, youthful appearing and active. Insist on and be sure to get genuine Rennel Concentrate.

Concert Given By LaRue High School Groups

Special to The Star

LARUE—The music department of LaRue High School presented a spring concert Friday night at the school auditorium where the various groups were represented with Martha Hoagland as soloist.

The program opened with the Girls Glee Club singing "I Got Shoes," "Londonderry," "I Love Life" and "The Song Is You." The Boys Glee Club followed with "Silver Moon," "My Own America," "John Peel" and "The Halls of Ivy." The vocal portion of the program was concluded with the 60-voice mixed chorus who sang, "It's a Grand Night for Singing," "I've Told Every Little Star," "Dry Bones" and "May the Good Lord Bless and Keep You." Glen Johnson, music supervisor of the school, directed the groups and Martha Hoagland served as accompanist. Each group sang an encore following their scheduled numbers.

The Junior Band in uniform was heard next in a group of five numbers. They were "America," "Faith of Our Fathers," "Fairest Lord Jesus," "Magdelin Waltz" and "United Nations March."

The program selected for the Senior Band was interesting and was well received by the audience. The first number was Sousa's "King Cotton" march, followed by a choral, "Let God Be Praised in Heaven Above," by Vulpius. The feature of the band portion was the "Trio for Trumpets" by Darcy, which was played by Bruce Kramp, Jack Mulvaine and Charles Boblenz with band accompaniment. A tonal picture, "Sunset Soliloquy" by Walters was followed by "Winter Wonderland" by Bernard in a setting for band arranged by Charles Boblenz, a ninth grade student.

The march "American Patrol" by Meachum-Scott and "The Bells of St. Mary's" by Adams concluded the Senior Band program, which was followed by the playing of "Grieg's Piano Concerto" by Martha Hoagland.

With all members of the Junior and Senior Bands on stage and wearing the uniforms of blue and white which were purchased by the school in the fall, the last group of numbers were played by the combined groups and included "Activity," "Project" and "Mutual" marches and "Smilin' Through" arranged by Director Glen Johnson. The proceeds realized from the concert will be used for equipment and instruments for the music department.

IN THE SERVICE

Captain Robert Tuttle of Sycamore who has been recalled into military service left Thursday for Willow Grove, Pa. where he will take a refresher course in the Marine Corps. He served four years in the armed forces during World War II and was discharged in 1945 but kept on the inactive reserve officers list. During that time he was advanced from Lieutenant to Captain.

After his discharge in 1946 he completed his course in Heidelberg College and has since been employed at Westport Point, Mass. His wife and three children are staying for the present with her mother, Mrs. D. A. Mick.

AT SENATE HEARING. Smiling Sen. Joseph McCarthy (R-Wis.) holds his hand to his ear in a Senate hearing room in Washington. He was attempting to take pre-trial depositions in his two million dollar libel suit against Sen. Benton (D-Conn.). The hearing ended when the latter refused to permit recording of the proceedings.

Ministerial Assoc. Elects New Officers

Rev. Goebel Named President To Succeed Rev. Booth

The Rev. J. Paul Goebel was elected president of the Marion County Ministerial Association Monday morning at the YMCA. He is pastor of First Evangelical and Reformed Church in Marion and will succeed in office the Rev. Ashley Booth, pastor of Central Christian Church. The new officers will take over their duties in the fall. Others elected include the Rev. C. L. Wooten of First Church of the Nazarene, vice president, and the Rev. L. L. Young of the Methodist Church at Prospect, secretary-treasurer.

During the business session, members voted approval and support of the community United Appeals campaign which is proposed to take the place of various separate fund drives. A report was made on proceeds from the showing during Holy Week of the film, "The King of Kings." Of the $200 received, $100 was voted for the work of weekday religious education in the public schools under auspices of the Marion County Council of Churches, and $100 for a public address system to be used for union vesper services and other meetings. From a Good Friday union service offering of more than $170, $25 was voted for the general expenses fund of the Council of Churches, the remainder for general use of the association. It was voted to continue the service of providing the church directory for use of the Welcome Wagon representative, and to renew subscriptions to Christian Century and Christian Herald at the Public Library.

For the program, Earl N. Hale spoke on juvenile delinquency in Marion County. The final meeting until fall will be held the first Monday in June.

New Fields Exploited

Restaurant Business Goes Out After Trade

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—The restaurant business—hard hit recently by television, rising costs and prices, and the big baby crop—is looking for and finding business beyond its doors.

At the annual meeting of the National Restaurant Association in Chicago this week members are reported trading tips on two profitable fields some are exploiting: take-home food service and the coffee break in business offices and factories.

A big pick up in each is reported. Declining sales and profits have spurred promotion of both services. Sales by the nation's eating places last year were off by about one billion dollars from the peak year of 1948, when they topped 12 billion dollars. Now sales are picking up again, members report.

Take-home service is combatting the three chief troubles: 1. TV, which keeps many families home; 2. Rising restaurant costs, which prices many families out of eating places; and 3. More babies, which means either hiring a babysitter if you eat out, or taking junior along and policing his manners.

THE "PAY-ROLL FAMILY" offers a prime market for take-home restaurant service, according to Fen K. Doscher, a Lily-Tulip Cup vice president, who is pretty interested in the idea, naturally, because his company is a supplier of containers for the food being taken home.

When both the husband and wife work, he says, the family is a set-up for sale of hard-to-prepare dishes around which the wife can assemble a quick and easy meal.

The National Restaurant Association is setting up a committee to study what foods are best for the service. Most restaurant men say it's best to concentrate on entrees, salads and desserts. They say beverages, and vegetables can be supplied easily at home and the patron balks at the paying restaurant prices for them.

It's a high margin of profit business for the restaurant because the take-home food can be prepared during the slack time between lunch and dinner, and carries with it no costs for linen, laundering, dishwashing, or for dishes and silver.

AT THE OTHER END of the line, catering to the thousands who like to break the morning's work routine with coffee and cakes is fast growing into a big thing around the nation, according to W. F. Williamson, executive vice president of the National Coffee Association.

Starting in New York two years ago with service to Mutual Life Insurance workers, Schrafft stores now serve 50,000 workers daily in 21 companies. The Brass Rail, which serves eight offices daily, says the desk-side service is a profitable bonus and leads to picking up such business as office parties and buffets. Union News, another restaurant chain, is now serving six companies and calls the second-breakfast its fastest growing business.

The Texas Company, which started taking coffee-break service 15 months ago for its 1,700 office employes here, reports workers used to average 30 minutes on a coffee sneak. They now average five minutes of time out in getting their coffee at their desk. The company says it's saved 55,000 man hours in the 15 months.

Cave-Dwellers

ROME (AP)—An estimated two million Italians live in caves, holes and walled-up arches of ancient viaducts. The weekly newspaper, L Europeo of Milan, said that recent studies showed at least 130,000 Italians live in cellars and grottos in cities. Another two million "cavemen" are scattered throughout country areas.

The chrysanthemum probably has been known for 2,000 years.

MT. GILEAD REVIVAL. The Rev. A. H. Perry of Des Moines, Ia., (above) is guest speaker at a revival meeting in progress this week at the Mt. Gilead Church of the Nazarene. Services are conducted each night during the week at 7:45, and will conclude with services Sunday at 7:30 p.m. The Rev. Mr. Perry has been pastor of Nazarene churches in Dayton, Wooster, Mansfield and Coshocton, and has organized several new churches in Ohio. He has devoted his time to evangelistic work since moving to Des Moines three years ago.

The word "mind" was originally a verb, not a noun.

Black Walnut Trees Called Plant Killer

MORGANTOWN, W. Va. (UP)—Important plant crops may be killed or seriously injured by contact with roots of black walnut trees, the West Virginia University agricultural experiment station reports.

The station said orchardists in West Virginia's eastern panhandle district also have found, on numerous occasions, that apple trees are injured or killed when planted near black walnut trees.

The farm experts blamed a secretion by the walnut roots for the situation. They said the poison particularly affects tomatoes, potatoes, alfalfa, blueberries and a wide assortment of flowers.

WACs, 10 Years Old This Month, Seek Recruits

(The WACs are 10 years old this month. This is the first of five articles reviewing their life and the lives of their sisters-in-arms, the WAVEs, WAFs, Women Marines and SPARs, who also had their origins in early wartime days).

By JANE EADS

WASHINGTON—The top brass was leery. The GIs made jokes. They said they didn't know how women would take to Army discipline. They gave out with the old argument "woman's place is in the home."

It wasn't long after that I heard some of them singing "The WACs and WAVEs are winning the war, so what the —— are we fighting for?"

Today the Womans' Army Corps is an integrated part of the Regular Army and Army Reserve. About to observe its tenth anniversary, the corps reached a wartime peak strength of 100,000. It's seeking to boost its current strength to 32,000 by July. "If a woman can do the job as well as a man, she's as welcome as he is," says the Army today.

With manpower short, Congress passed a bill to enable the Army to use women in many jobs less than six months after Pearl Harbor, the first of a series of such bills that eventually covered all the services.

Full military status was not at first granted to Army women. Officials explained "the American public still believe women will be safer in an auxiliary." Hence the establishment of the Women's Army Auxiliary Corps (WAAC). America's first women's army. Col. Oveta Culp Hobby of Houston, Tex., was its first director. Some 784 young women began their military training on July 20, 1942, at Fort Des Moines, Ia. They became a full-fledged part of the Army Sept. 1, 1943, as the Women's Army Corps (WAC).

Many commands were slow to requisition them at first. But as the manpower shortage became more acute, the Army sudden-like awoke to the fact that women could handle 406 of the 628 jobs it had. Soon WACs were all over the place.

On their first birthday 60,000 WAACS were on duty at 100 military establishments in the U.S. and overseas. When the first two WACs arrived in India, a news photograph caption to them read: "General arrives too, but who cares?"

No WACs were killed by enemy action, but 14 received Purple Hearts. Col. Hobby received the Distinguished Service Medal. WACs got 23 Legion of Merit awards, 281 Bronze Stars, six Soldiers Medals and several decorations from foreign countries. Col. Mary A. Hallaren is the current head of the Corps.

4 CHILDREN AND MAN KILLED IN FIRE. Holding a floppy doll, fireman Frank Griesback stands amid charred ruins of what was a two-story frame house in Bogota, N. J. The doll belonged to 2-year-old twins, Janet and Joyce Patton, killed in the fire along with sisters Claire, 9, and Eileen, 6, and an overnight visitor, Bernard Nelson, 60, of Hoboken, N. J. The children's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Patton, and a son, John Jr., escaped.

Plan School Light Project in Bucyrus

BUCYRUS—A new fluorescent lighting system will be installed at Bucyrus High School this summer, I. James Miller, school superintendent, announced today following the awarding of the contract for the project to Budd's Electric of Bucyrus.

The contract was awarded by the board of education to the Bucyrus firm on its bid of $23,741. Bids were submitted by Strasser and Son of Upper Sandusky, and Kiess Electric of Bucyrus.

More than 500 new lighting fixtures will be installed. The foot candlepower of the new system will be between 34 and 40 compared with the present eight to 10 power.

The project will be financed with a $16,000 appropriation set aside in the building fund with the remainder coming from a $10,000 contingency fund.

Scout Leaders Take Course

17 Complete Basic Training

The Marion District Boy Scout leadership training committee concluded an eight week Scoutmaster's basic training course with ceremonies at Camp Owens Saturday night.

Certificates were presented by Chairman Richard Slack to 17 Scout leaders who completed all sessions of the course. Forty-seven persons attended the meeting, which featured a program of training in "Fundamentals of the Boy Scout Movement."

Preceding training activities, the Scouters prepared and served a steak dinner for their wives. Neighborhood Commissioner P. B. Nichols was in charge of preparing the meat. He was assisted by Slack, Field Executive Robert Cheetham, Camp Ranger Ray Coleman, Scoutmaster Milton Lashley, and Scout Executive C. G. Wheeldon.

While the course was open to any unit leaders who had not completed basic training, it was conducted primarily for leaders of three new troops recently organized by Central Christian Church, North Main Street School PTA and Morral Odd Fellows Lodge.

The Marion District has a total of 37 packs, troops, and Explorer posts, with a membership of 843 Cubs, Scouts, and Explorers. This is an all time high in Scout membership in the district and an increase of 21 per cent over a year ago. Fifty per cent of all unit leaders have completed basic training. Dr. James Greetham, Marion District chairman, announced that the membership goal for the end of this year is 40 units with 900 Scouts. The district training goal is for 75 per cent of all unit leaders to be trained.

Those completing the course and receiving certificates were: James Warren, Richard Sherman, Lawrence Kline, Joe Fincher, Art Loscher, and Keith Bell of Troop 7, sponsored by the Central Christian Church; Frank Van De Carr of Troop 17, sponsored by the Salvation Army; Bob Gorenflo, Walter Wolbert, and Walter Osman of Troop 10, sponsored by the North Main Street School PTA; Richard Slack, institutional representative of Troop 33, sponsored by the Calvary EUB Church; Ray Coleman and Dale Hineman, also of Troop 33; Francis Warwick of Troop 32, sponsored by First Church of the Brethren; P. B. Nichols and Milton Lashley of Troop 11, sponsored by Quinn's Chapel; Harry Bard of Troop 14, sponsored by Salt Rock Lodge 883, IOOF, of Morral.

Scoutmaster James Warren and Assistant Scoutmaster Art Loscher, both of Troop 7, Central Christian Church, were patrol leaders of the training groups.

Guests at the closing meeting were Council President Dr. Robert T. Gray and Mrs. Gray and Camp Chairman Dr. A. J. Wagner.

Radio and Television

By JOHN CROSBY

The Nature of the Problem

THE BROADCASTER soothes his conscience a bit every time he exhorts us—as a public service—to respect the sanctity of motherhood Or to love they neighbor regardless of race, creed or color Or to pay heed to any other of the Ten Commandments I've alway been nagged by a slight suspicion that these exhortations noble as they are in intent, weren't really accomplishing very much, a suspicion I didn t quite date express

Now, along comes Dallas Smythe director of studies of the National Association of Educational Broadcasters, to give form to this heretical thought He asks whether the appeals to racial tolerance broadcast during Brotherhood Week" were effective "Usually such programs stress heavily appeals to reason to moral values (including Christian compassion) and to patriotic values Since the target for them is the prejudiced person, the question revolves around the reactions of the prejudiced to such appeals The unprejudiced, by and large don t need to be needled Is it possible that far from making the bigot less prejudiced, such programs might even have the opposite effect'"

THIS GOES FAR beyond my own thought that these propaganda messages are ineffectual, and suggests that they might even be downright harmful As source material Mr Smythe quotes from "The Authoritarian Personality," a monumental work written by a team of psychologists as a joint project of the Berkeley Public Opinion Study and the Institute for Social Research at the University of California

The contemporary bigot, the psychologists find, is 'both enlightened and superstitious , he is a mass of submerged attitudes deeply charged with emotion which he only dimly understands 'Rational arguments cannot be expected to have deep or lasting effects upon a phenomenon that is irrational in its essential nature Appeals to sympathy may do as much harm as good when directed to people one of whose deepest fears is that they might be identified with weakness or suffering" Some bigots are constitutionally incapable of liking anybody Therefore hostility diverted from one group will only land on another

MOST RADIO programs dealing with intolerance treat 'the symptoms rather than the disease itself Appeals to the prejudiced man s reason are likely to be wasted effort but appeals to his conventionality or to his submissiveness toward authority might be effective ' It s a grisly thought and one difficult to execute with any degree of propriety You don t, in short say 'Don t discriminate against Negroes because it is inherently wrong" You say instead "Don t discriminate because Jones who belongs to the very best clubs doesn't and wouldn t approve Also, it's against the law and you might get caught."

Stated so baldly, these are cowardly arguments Yet, they reveal the fundamental nature of the problem If the idea is to promote tolerance then let's promote it It does no good to put X number of 'Brotherhood" messages on the air simply to claim credit for having advanced the cause so many more inches when in fact, it may even have set it back an inch or so

VOIDS BOOKIE TAX. An early U. S. Supreme Court test is expected following decision of Federal District Judge George A. Welsh (above) of Philadelphia that the federal law requiring bookmakers and numbers operators to register and pay a $50 stamp fee is unconstitutional. Judge Welsh ruled against several aspects of the law in the case of Joseph Kahriger, 36, charged with failure to register as a gambler.

Hospital Head Withdraws Resignation

Special to The Star

DELAWARE — The Jane M. Case Hospital board Monday night adopted in completed form a revised administrative plan and at the same time received the withdrawal of the resignation of Miss Ada Mitchell, superintendent.

Board President Harold Burrell reported Tuesday that the board in recessed session approved the plan which provides for a director of nursing responsible to the superintendent for strictly defined duties.

Jurisdictions of both the nursing director and the superintendent are set out in the motion adopted by a unanimous vote of the hospital board. The new plan is similar to an earlier plan which prompted Miss Mitchell's resignation and the resignations of nine other staff members.

A step toward putting the new program in effect was taken when the board voted to offer the post of nursing director to Mrs. Hulda Stuart, a member of the present nursing staff.

Mrs. Stuart joined the hospital staff in 1950 and since October has served as assistant to Supt. Mitchell.

No action was taken upon the nine staff resignations submitted since the board moved toward a revised administrative policy last month. Burrell said the board approved referring the resignations to the nursing director and superintendent for consultation and action.

United Service Club Makes Parade Plans

Plans were made to enter a float in the Armed Forces Day Parade, May 15, when the United Service Club met Monday afternoon at the YMCA. It was reported that the club had given 11 packages during April to men leaving for service. The meeting closed with prayer by the chaplain. The club will meet again June 2.

When people die of Asiatic cholera, their bodies may remain warm a long time, and the temperature may even rise after death.

BIG WING TANKS INCREASE RANGE Largest fuel tanks of their type are shown suspended under wings of the Boeing B-47B Stratojet, to give the "world s fastest bomber" considerably greater range The tanks, mounted between GE J-47-23 jet engines which develop 5,800 pounds thrust each, are painted black and white for better identification in drop tests Engines of earlier B-47 Stratojet developed 600 pounds less thrust.

Love Triumphant

By ADELE GARRISON

"I'll speed her on her way" Dicky told Lillian 'see that she gets safely into the elevator, and then I'll come back(put on the night chain according to the Chief s instructions, and then settle down with you for a session of what—chess, checkers, dominoes or sparkling conversation? Anything to oblige, you know. Name your poison"

"I'll do that last some day if you don t mend your ways," she said 'And, if you don t mind I'd like to curl up with a good book I'll bet that s your inward urge too We can look up and toss each other a line or two of brilliant repartee if we feel the words bubbling to our lips, but frankly, I'd like to finish a book I'm trying to read"

"So would I old dear," Dicky told her as he escorted me to the door and I knew that he was infinitely relieved not to have to talk to Lillian while the tense situation about Marion was still unresolved

As Dicky opened the door, a last glimpse of Lillian showed her opening a book and settling down to read it That Dicky had seen her also I knew when he had opened the door ushered me into the hall and closed it after us

'I have my key" he said, "and I have to slip you a word before you go up to the studio '

Yes?" I said as he paused

"Old Harry is already there and do you know, I think his brain is running a bit along the same switch as Lillian s about Marion, although it isn t an obsession with him and he doesn t know the new developements that Carlotta brought"

'Oh oh! No! ' I protested

"Pull yourself together, Sweet!" Dicky admonished me sharply "for I'll have to push the button for the elevator pretty soon Can t wait too long or Lil will be getting ideas But I knew I must prepare you before you reached the studio"

I already was beginning the process of pulling myself together and I even managed a smile at him

"I m all right" I told him "and thank you a million Go ahead and push the button But can you give me a hint of what Harry is thinking—the angle he s taking?"

"He doesn't know the things that Carlotta Carroll brought to us a little while ago," Dicky said "He's still floundering among all the horrible probabilities that the knowledge of Ronald's refusal to marry Marion, and of his despair brought He doesn' t know whether Ronald is blind or diseased or losing his mind—or what

"I think, in a way, that will be better for you," he went on "You ll be able to assuage his blind fears, by telling him the exact truth Then you can go on from there But, I know it isn't going to be any picnic for you Take my blessing and my good wishes and don t forget when you come back, that you ve been at Wheeler's"

"I won t' I said as the elevator came to a stop, and then Dicky was waving good-bye, and Adams was sending the elevator up to Dicky s studio When he reached the floor, he gave me a message

"Mr Graham said when you finished your interview to telephone me, and I will take you back to your suite But, he said, that while you could stay as long as necessary, not to come back before four o'clock and that Mr Underwood is to wait at the studio for him"

Club Presents Program At Ladies Home

For residents of the Waddell Ladies Home Sunday, a musicale and tea was arranged by the Marion Life Members Club of the National Federation of Music Clubs as a special event of National Music Week observance here.

Mrs. James C. Woods presided for the program beginning at 3 o'clock. Music was by Mrs. Raymond Pierce, soprano soloist who is a member of the Lecture-Recital Club. She sang "In My Garden," Firestone, "Spring Rain," Gould, "Sweethearts" from "Maytime," Romberg, and 'Sweet Hour of Prayer."

Roger Jamison, a pianist of the Junior Lecture-Recital Club, played "Spinning Song," Mendelssohn, and "Scottish Tone Poem," MacDowell.

Miss Sally Schneider, Youth Lecture-Recital Club pianist, presented "Harp Etude," Chopin, "Des Abends," Schumann, and "Romance," Sibelius. The group then listened to the Central District radio broadcast over Station WMRN which featured Miss Elizabeth Johnson, violinist, and Mrs. Harry T. Williams, pianist, at 3:45. Both joined the group at the home later for tea.

Mrs. David W. Evans, president of the Life Members Club, presided at the table which was decorated with tulips in a fountain arrangement and white tapers in crystal candelabra. Assisting were Mrs. Woods, Mrs. Leroy Schneider and Mrs. Lewis Wills. Guests included Mrs. C. B. Strother who will leave Marion next week by air route from Cleveland to join her son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. H. K. Mouser, now living at Coral Gables, Fla., and Mrs. Denver Duffey who was here from Toledo. The Marion Life Members Club includes Mrs. O. D. Anderson of Grosse Pointe, Mich., formerly of Marion, Mrs. J. Malcolm Strelitz of Marion, and Mrs. Mouser.

Small doses of chloroform, taken internally, have much the same effect as alcohol.
